CEASE-FIRE SIGNING EXPECTED SUNDAY

Wilson Wins Fight on Air Force Funds

Senate OKs Budget Of $34 Billion; No Cuts Are Restored

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of Defense Wilson have won their long battle to cut funds and target goals of the Air Force.

Without a record vote, the Senate late yesterday shouted approval of a bill carrying $34,434,140,500 to operate the defense establishment for the fiscal year which began July 1.

The real tests had come earlier after lengthy and at times angry debate.

First, by a 55-38, roll call, the Senate rejected an effort by Sen. Maybank (D-SC) to give the Air Force an additional 400 million dollars to order 200 B47 jet bombers, capable of delivering atomic bombs.

This was the big test, since it was the first to come to a vote. Republican lines held firm against the increase and they picked up 9 valuable Democratic votes to add to the 46 GOP ones. Voting for Maybank's amendment were 37 Democrats and 1 Independent.

If Maybank's move had succeeded, other Democrats planned amendments to restore more of the five billion dollars cut from former President Truman's Air Force budget by the GOP administration.

Sen. Hayden (D-Ariz) lost 48-41 in an effort to add about 50 million dollars to step up pilot training.

He recalled that many World War II pilots had been called back into service in Korea and said Congress should train enough pilots to avoid this in the future.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), floor manager for the bill, said the Air Force should be able to turn out 8,300 new pilots this year in addition to some 47,000 now trained.

Not a change was made in the bill as it had been reported by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

A conference committee will be named to adjust Senate-House differences.

One Senate provision may cause trouble there. It would end the recent policy of giving areas of high employment preference in the award of defense contracts.

The Senate upped the House totals for the Air Force by about 200 millions, for the Navy by 96 millions and for the Army by 31 millions. It offset this in part by chopping out 250 millions the House voted for a machine tools pool asked by Secretary Wilson.

As the bill cleared the Senate it contained about 77 million more than the House voted.

The Senate bill still was more than 1 billion below Eisenhower's budget, more than 6 billions under the Truman requests and more than 12½ billions less than Congress voted defense agencies last year.

The funds are expected to result in a total military force of 3,356,000 by the end of next June, which will be cut to 3,300,000 if a truce is reached in Korea. That compares with a recent 3½ million in uniform.

Derby Sponsors, 75 Entrants Keeping Eyes on Weather

A total of 75 boys are entered in the seventh annual Soap Box Derby which is scheduled Saturday afternoon on the S. Main St. hill.

Members of the Marion Lions Club, which sponsors the Derby, were hoping for the weatherman's stamp of approval. The Derby was orginally set for last Saturday but was called off because of rain.

Derby events will get under way with a parade at 1:30 p.m. The races will follow.

The winner here will go to the National Derby at Akron on Aug. 9. There will be a new champ as last year's winner, Vic Grizzie of Mansfield, is not competing in the Derby this year.

3 U.S. Hunters Found Dead in Quebec Forest

Canadian Authorities Say Pennsylvanians Slain; Killer Sought

GASPE, Que. (AP)—Quebec police today sought the human killer of three Pennsylvania hunters whose fleshless, bear-gnawed bones have been found deep in the rugged, mountainous Gaspe Peninsula after a 3-week search.

"Murder, cold - blooded and planned" was the report last night of the Quebec Attorney-General's Department after discovery of the chewed remains of the last two victims. Robbery was believe the motive, since no trace was found of $700 in cash, two expensive rifles, binoculars and most of the equipment they were known to have carried.

Police hinted an arrest was imminent but were mum on suspects. Woodsmen went back into the bush today seeking more clues.

The men, all from Hollidaysburg, Pa. went into the remote area, 65 miles from here, without local guides on June 12 to shoot bears. They were Eugene H. Lindsey, 45, whose skeletal, skull-less remains were found last week; his son Richard, 17, and Fred Claar, 20.

The youths' bones were discovered yesterday at an abandoned logging camp four miles from another camp which had yielded the remains of the elder Lindsey. Both sites were criss-crossed by bear tracks. The bush country lies along an upper branch of the St. Jean River, far from the picturesque coastal road familiar to many American tourists.

Only one skull was found. A medical expert said he believed bears could have eaten the two missing heads.

Police said a set of upper teeth were found and were believed to have been Claar's. Nearby was a white sweatshirt with the words "Hollidaysburg Tigers." A white sweater was stained with dried blood and with a small, circular hole, as if made a bullet.

Widely scattered about were rib bones, parts of spinal columns, leg and arm bones. Two hip bones were found on the far side of the stream. Strewn about were bits of chewed clothing, a watch believed to have been young Lindsey's and other small possessions.

Searchers said none of the bones appeared to have been broken by human violence but all had been gnawed and dragged about, apparently by bears which followed up the murderer.

Relatives and friends of the hunters in Hollidaysburg and nearby Atoona, Pa., pressed for a complete investigation of the killings. A group of Altoona sportsmen last night urged that the famed Royal Canadian Mounted Police be assigned to the probe. The group said it would wire Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa), urging him to ask the State Department and the FBI to enlist the Mounties' aid.

The hunters left their Pennsylvania home June 5, to be gone two weeks. Their relatives set up the alarm when no word was heard from them three weeks later. Police began a wide search.

Jamboree Is Over, Scouts Head Home

JAMBOREE CITY, Calif. (AP)—It won't be long before the rabbits, deer and sheep take back this 3,000 acres of ranch land, and the 1953 third National Boy Scout Jamboree will live only in memory for the whopping army of boys who made it their camp for a week.

The great encampment of American youth and leaders — 45,000 strong—ended officially last night with a final show in the outdoor arena. Today the boys, laden with their swapping souvenirs, are fanning out in a mass exodus to their homes.

It will take four days to empty the encampment on this Southern California ranch near Newport Beach. Today 688 buses were working to deliver boys to special trains leaving from the nearby points of East Los Angeles, Puente, Santa Ana and Fullerton. Departures the first day were scheduled to total 21,531, by special trains and overland buses. There will be other daily departures through Monday.

Soon most of the traces of this gigantic tent city will be gone. The Irvine Ranch Company again will use Big Canyon for sheep grazing.

It was a crowded week for the boys in 30,000 tents, and last night's show was a fitting windup. Roscoe Ates played the part of a skeptical old timer for whom the Boy Scouts proved their worth by demonstrating skills in various fields, including burro packing, canoe camping, Jamboree camping, first aid, disaster work and physical fitness drills.

House Rejects Tariff Increase

Free-Traders Win as GOP Solidarity Splits

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House in a vote that split the Republicans down the middle, last night killed a bill to increase tariff protection for American industry.

The 242-161 decision, a triumph for the freer trade policies of the Eisenhower administration, was won chiefly with Democratic votes.

The bill was sponsored by Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa). It would have spelled out curbs on imports of foreign oil, lead, zinc and watches, and tended toward higher tariffs or import ceilings in scores of other fields.

The test came on a motion to kill the bill by sending it back to the House Ways and Means Committee. Republicans divided 105-104 against the motion and thus against the administration position.

GOP members voted that way only a few minutes after Republican Floor Leader Halleck of Indiana urged them to "stand by the administration . . . , because it is the right and proper thing to do."

Democrats rolled up a 136-56 margin for the administration-backed motion to bury the proposal. The House's lone independent, Rep. Reams of Ohio, voted to kill the bill.

Three Injured In Accidents Within County

Two on Motorcycle Sent to Hospital; Marion Woman Hurt

Three persons were injured in two traffic accidents in Marion County Thursday.

One accident, which resulted in injury to a Marion woman, occurred near Caledonia in the northeast section of the county. In this general area in the last month, a total of three persons have been killed and nine injured.

The other accident involved an automobile and motorcycle. Two young men on the motorcycle were injured.

Mrs. Romine Injured

Mrs. Trella Romine, of 552 N. Greenwood St. was taken to Marion City Hospital as a result of a two-car collision at the intersection of Marion County Roads 162 and 178 near Caledonia at 8:15 a.m. Thursday.

Driver of the other car, Glen Pickett, 17, of near Caledonia, escaped uninjured.

State highway patrolmen said the Romine car was headed east and the Pickett car north when the two met at the intersection, which is not marked with stop signs. The impact sent the Romine car into a ditch on the left side of the road, where it overturned.

Mrs. Romine received a lacerated left hand, cuts above the eye and about the face and suffered shock. She was taken to the hospital by a Timson Allen ambulance of Caledonia.

Extensive damage to the Romine car was reported and a wrecker was called to haul it away. The Pickett car was considerably damaged.

2 on Motorcycle Hurt

A Marion motorcyclist and a passenger were taken to City Hospital Thursday about 11:20 p.m. from State Route 4, one and a half miles south of the Route 203 junction, after the motorcycle and a car which it was following crashed into a ditch on the right side of the highway.

Injured were the driver of the

Ship Burns In Port, Seven Feared Dead

Tanker Catches Fire While Unloading Oil At Wilmington, Del.

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—A seagoing tanker exploded and burned alongside a dock last night and checkups today showed seven men missing, six of them crewmen from tugboats that were caught by the blast.

The 9,179-ton tanker Pan-Georgia was completing discharge of it's 110,000 barrel cargo of fuel oil and high octane gasoline when flames spouted from one of the holds.

A check of the Pan Georgia's crew list showed all but one man, Ray Ott, of Galveston, Tex., the second assistant engineer, had been accounted for. Ship officers said he apparently drowned after leaping overboard to escape the flames.

In Philadelphia, the Curtis Bay Towing Co. reported it had been unable to account for six crewmen aboard its tugs, the J. H. Deinlein and the Otoco. Both tugs were standing by the Pan Georgia at the time the fire started.

Coast Guardsmen and Delaware River harbor patrol crewmen were dragging the river near this city's marine terminal in a search for bodies.

The Pan Georgia was damaged extensively.

Of the other crew members, 24 were rescued by Coast Guard and Army engineer rescue boats and brought to Red Cross headquarters in Wilmington. Another eight were admitted to Delaware Hospital where two are in critical condition from burns.

Eight others, including Capt. Morgan A. Maxey; 36, of Port Arthur, Tex., stayed on board to battle the flames.

It was the second tragedy in little more than a month involving bulk carriers vessels. On June 6, the Pan Massachusetts and The Phoenix collided at Port Penn, 15 miles south of here, causing a spectacular fire and taking three lives.

Joseph H. Boland, 55, of Galveston, Tex., a member of the ship's mess, said he believe the fire started when a spark from a tugboat standing alongside the ship blew into an open hold of the tanker, touching off gasoline fumes.

The tug boat was preparing to pull the tanker from its dock into the river for a return voyage to Texas City, Tex.

Hole in Field Is Death Trap For Galion Boy

Special to The Star

GALION — Four - year - old Michael William Cotton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cotton of Galion, drowned Thursday night in a water filled hole near his home.

His body was recovered by firemen at 9:50 p.m. in a hole about ten feet deep in a field owned by Harold Bender. Crawford County Coroner B. P. Mansfield said today death was due to accidental drowning and fixed the time at 8:30 p.m.

The boy had eaten supper and gone out to play. When he hadn't returned home at 8:30 p.m. his parents began looking for him. Later neighbors joined the search and police were called at 9:30

Night's Spree Proves Costly

Boy Vandals Must Pay Damages, Fines of $25

Six Marion County boys, who caused an estimated $120 damage to property in an automobile tour of the county, found Thursday that getting in trouble is an expensive business.

The six teen-agers admitted charges of trespassing and malicious damage of property before Judge Edward J. Ruzzo in Marion County Juvenile Court Thursday afternoon.

On a five-hour 100-mile automobile jaunt Sunday night and early Monday morning, the boys tore down and defaced a number of rural mail boxes in southeastern Marion County, in addition to causing considerable property damage to farm equipment.

Backing up his admonition to the boys that "getting in trouble is an expensive business," Judge Ruzzo gave the boys 30 days in which to make full restitution of the damages they caused and fined each of them $25 and costs.

In addition, Judge Ruzzo placed the boys in detention in their own homes under the supervision of their parents, and at the conclusion of the 30-day period he ordered that they be placed on probation for an undetermined time.

Judge Ruzzo also suspended the driver's license of the boy who

THE LONG ARMS OF THE LAW. Chicago detectives grab Michael Hekimian (center) after he robbed his drug store employer of $5,000 in Redondo Beach, Calif., and tried to fly to safety. Hekimian was traced through an abandoned getaway car, a tax driver and ticket agent at Los Angeles International airport. Chicago authorities, alerted by police, then stepped in and nabbed him. Hekimian told newsmen: "They aren't kidding . . . crime doesn't pay."

House Girds For Fight on Postal Rates

GOP Leaders Fear Stiff Opposition on Proposed Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—House leaders may try to force a showdown today or tomorrow on the Eisenhower administration's demand for higher postal rates.

Republican leader Halleck of Indiana told newsmen he hoped to get the controversial rate bill out of the Postoffice Committee in time for House consideration Monday.

He conceded he might be overly optimistic, but said he would insist on some committee action to find out where the administration stands in one of the hottest session-end battles on Capitol Hill.

The proposed rate boosting bill is the target of foes openly seeking to stall off action until Congress adjourns in a week or two.

Chairman Rees (R-Kan) stepped up committee activity by calling night sessions in an effort to finish hearing witnesses waiting to protest the effect of higher postage costs on their businesses.

The bill, on President Eisenhower's "must" list, would hike postal rates 240 million dollars a year to ease a postoffice deficit running more than 500 millions. The largest share of the increase would be borne by first class and airmail users, who would pay a penny more for stamps.

Committee foes of the bill yesterday blocked attempts to end the hearings tomorrow and get down to drafting a bill.

The test, as soon as the committee concludes hearings, is likely to come on Postmaster General Summerfield's request for 1-cent increases on first class and air mail. Together, they would produce an estimated 165 million dollars in additional revenue.

If these increases are approved, members believe the committee would proceed without much argument to approve other increases affecting business, newspaper and magazine publishers, book sellers and others.

Shell Hits Near British Freighter

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Navy said tonight a "single shell, bomb or mine" exploded today near a 3,000-ton British freighter in the Japan Sea but the ship was undamaged.

U. S. warships were maneuvering in the area, the Navy said.

The Navy said the freighter, the San Eduardo, was heading from Japan to the Red Chinese port of Chinwangtao.

Earlier, the Japanese Coast Guard had reported U. S. ships fired on the freighter and it might have sunk.

Break in Columbus Bus Strike Indicated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus went into the ninth day of a paralyzing transit strike today with strong indications it would end before the weekend.

A meeting between the striking CIO Transport Workers Union and the Columbus Transit Co. was scheduled today. The company indicated last night it was ready to resume negotiations with the union on its demands for a 23½ cent an hour wage increase and a reduction of the present 48 hour work week to 40 hours.

Chinese Hurl New Attacks At U.N. Lines

Two Allied Outposts On Western Front Weather Red Assault

SEOUL (AP)—Up to 5,000 Chinese Reds slammed into Allied lines tonight in two attacks on the Korean Western Front.

Frontline officers called the new fighting "hot and heavy." It came as truce negotiators were reported to have drawn the Korean cease-fire line in sessions at Panmunjom, a few miles to the south.

The Chinese rammed a regiment —about 2,800 soldiers—at one Allied hill position and about two battalions at another.

One of the postions was outpost Esther.

The embattled hills were directly south of Outposts Berlin and East Berlin, seized by the Reds this week from troops of tht U. S. 1st Marine Division.

To the east, four Chinese companies in a daring daylight assault smashed to the crest of the rugged hill overlooking the Kumsong River bend after a savage nightlong battle with South Koreans.

Reports from the Central Front said the height changed hands three times in bloody close combat.

The Chinese first scaled the Allied-held hill after a 4½-hour battle which began about midnight, but were shoved down the slopes by counterattacking ROKs at dawn. The hill was quiet for a few hours, then was recaptured in a savage Red charge at noon which was protected by overcast skies that grounded Allied warplanes.

The U.S. 8th Army reported Allied artillery caught five Chinese companies — about 800 soldiers— in the open in the Kumhwa-Kumsong Valley on the Central Front and killed or wounded 270 Reds.

American and South Korean troops overpowered the Reds in six of nine other small but savage battles across the war-torn peninsula.

The South Koreans caught the brunt of what could be some of the final fighting in the 3-year war. They counterattacked on four Central front hills lost to the Reds this week, and recaptured one in a bloody fight with hand grenades and rifle butts.

Bitter fighting continued on the other three hills near the Kumsong River.

The hill battles broke out just before South Korean President Syngman Rhee issued new threats to the armistice which seemed all but signed at Panmunjom.

Allied machine guns and artillery tore up three Chinese assaults by about 150 men each northeast of Kumhwa, western anchor of Allied lines on the Central Front and a vital Allied road junction.

On the Western Front, soldiers of the U. S. 7th Infantry Division hurled back two similar Red assaults against Outposts Dale and West View both in the irregular low hill area around Old Baldy and Pork Chop Hills.

Machine guns and artillery raked the Reds for two hours before they fell back from Outpost Dale about midnight.

Fighting raged for 4½ hours on West View before the Reds were stopped just after midnight. A second wave hit in the early morning and kept up the fighting another hour before falling back.

There was no estimate of the

Korea Truce Believed Set Despite Rhee

Last-Minute Bolt By Korean President Only Hitch Possible

SEOUL, Saturday (AP)—A usually reliable source said last night the Korean armistice probably will be signed Sunday. Official confirmation was lacking.

The informant, who is close to the truce talks but cannot otherwise be identified, said only last-minute hitch stemming from President Syngman Rhee's opposition could block the signing.

The informant said announcement of the signing date could be expected today. He said he did not know the contemplated hour of the ceremony which would formalize a cease-fire in the war, now more than three years old.

The signing date probably was set, tentatively at least, by senior liaison officers at a meeting in Panmunjom Friday afternoon.

A full-dress session of the main delegation might be held today to approve the date.

Rhee has threatened several times in the past to pull out of the U. N. Command and fight on alone.

In a strongly worded statement, Rhee accused the Allies of giving the Communists pledges which "render impossible a fulfillment" of some of South Korea's basic understandings with the United States."

He said his agreement wiht Assistant Secretary of State Walter S. Robertson, President Eisenhower's truce envoy, provided:

1. " . . . that no troops from India or any other foreign nation will be landed in South Korea to guard prisoners of war."

Yet, said Rhee, "The Communists claim Gen. William K. Harrison has agreed that such troops will land in South Korea and that they will be granted police protection by the U. N. forces. I can only say that the Korean people will not permit this to happen."

2. " . . . that the United States will join with the Republic of Korea in setting a time limit to the political conference."

Yet, Rhee added, "It has been announced there is agreement that there will be no time limit on the armistice . . .

3. ". . . that Korean prisoners who refuse repatriation shall be set free in South Korea and that the Chinese prisoners who refuse to return to communism shall be sent to a destination of their own choice."

Yet, Rhee said, "The so far uncontradicted report from Panmunjom directly states that this will not be done . . . This cannot be allowed to happen."

Rhee said that during his conference with Robertson "I asked him, as a major basis for my reluctant agreement to postpone our plans for dealing with the enemy

Administration Plans Korean Rehabilitation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Republican congressional leaders decided today to seek an initial fund of 200 million dollars for rehabilitation of Korea after an armistice.

The decision was reached at a White House breakfast meeting. Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge sat in with the President and the Republican law makers for the 90-minute session.

House Speaker Martin said the administration hopes a truce will be signed soon. He added that plans already are under way for rehabilitation of the war-torn country.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif), acting majority leader of the Senate, predicted a request for the initial 200 million dollar fund will be approved by Congress before it adjourns.

He expressed confidence adjournment will come by July 31 despite a considerable list of bills on which Eisenhower wants action.

Knowland estimated the cost of continuing the fighting in Korea for another year would be about $1,200,000,000.

He said the 200 million for rehabilitation actually would come out of the defense appropriation for continuing the war and that in effect there would be a saving of one billion dollars.

Coon Chase To Be Sunday At Galion

Special to The Star

GALION—From indications of entries, more than 150 dogs are expected to be run in the mid-summer field trial of the Crawford County Coon-Hunters Association, here, Sunday, July 26.

The chase will be held on the Otto Pfeifer farm, one-half mile south of Galion, on the South St. Road. Activities will start at noon, and last throughout the afternoon, it was announced today by R. W. Stall, president of the association.

The field trial, rapidly growing in popularity, affords one of the best ways of raising funds for propagating, feeding and providing habitat for wild game, Stall said. The trial also provides good entertainment for sportsmen and dog lovers who also are interested in making better hunting for all.

The dogs to be run Sunday will share in the guaranteed purse, Stall said. The Coon Hunters Association is not an organization for Coon Hunters alone, but that they are trying to improve hunting of all different kinds. Last February the association released 24 dozen Missouri Cottontail rabbits throughout the county, and from all reports in the different areas where they were released the rabbit population is being greatly released.

In past years, the association has released matured pheasants in mid-June with no real good results. This year, however, members have their order placed with Talmadge Pheasant Farm for 150 matured birds to be received and released about the first of April or as soon as the weather breaks in the spring. This is believed to be the best time for the birds to adapt themselves and a time when they will not be disturbed in the middle of their laying season. When released in June, Stall explained that they are badly frightened and will stop their nesting and laying of eggs.

The association also has ordered 24 dozen Kansas Cottontail to be delivered early next spring throughout the county.

Stall said that at the Pfeifer farm, for the field trial, Sunday, the spectators are able to see the dogs finish for quite some distance. Lunch and refreshments will be served on the grounds. All profits, he said, will go toward replenishing and feeding of wild game. Officers and personnel that promote the trials, work without any compensation or pay for their services.

The public is invited to attend this coon chase, and are asked to follow the signs from U. S. 30-S and State Routes 61 and 19.

GI Hates Army Life, Goes AWOL 7 Times

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — William L. Shaffer of West Portsmouth doesn't like army life.

He has gone absent without leave seven times. On the fifth time he falsely confessed murdering a doctor to escape being returned. Yesterday, on his latest arrest, he asked Sheriff Burl Justice to charge him with carrying a concealed weapon.

But the sheriff found only a pocket knife on Shaffer, who reluctantly calls Camp Breckenridge, Ky., his base. He'll go back today.

Phone Number Enough, Maryland Girl Finds

CENTREVILLE, Md. (AP) Anne Green, 7, may not know how to spell "Maryland," but she knows the family telephone number.

So, that's how she addressed a letter home from Camp Todd, near Denton, Md.

The letter was addressed to "Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green, Centreville 55-M." It was delivered the day after it was mailed.

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Covington ended a full year without a fatal traffic accident yesterday. With a population of 65,000, it's Kentucky's second largest city.

Memorial Service Honors 112 Sub Dead

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—The Navy destroyer escort Underhill was sunk by Japanese submarines at 3:15 p. m. on July 24, 1945, off the coast of Formosa.

At that hour today, services are being held in the Naval Academy chapel memorializing the 112 seamen who went down with the vessel.

Some of the 122 survivors will be among the 50 persons expected at the annual memorial. They belong to the Underhill Memorial Committee.

Alger Man Seeks Judgeship in New Court at Kenton

Special to the Star

KENTON — An Alger man, Lyman P. Clark, announced Thursday that he will seek the judgeship in the newly created Kenton Municipal Court. Clark is the first person to declare his intentions of seeking the post.

He is a former mayor and solicitor of Alger and has been justice of the peace in that town since 1931.

The court was fully authorized Wednesday when Gov. Frank Lausche signed the bill which had been passed by the Ohio legislature establishing nine new municipal courts. Other courts have been granted to Athens, Circleville, Delaware, Port Clinton, Cuyahoga Falls, Ravenna, Sidney, and Tiffin.

The new Kenton court will have jurisdiction of almost all of Hardin County. Only Liberty Township will not be affected by the new system.

Clark has until August 5 to file for candidacy. The elections for the new judge will be held at the general elections on Nov. 3.

A graduate of Ohio Northern University, Ada, and of Ohio Northern College of Law, Clark has practiced law in Alger since 1932. He served as mayor of the town three terms beginning with the 1929-31 term.

He is a member of the Hardin Memorial Hospital Board. He has been the Alger representative to that group for five years.

Clark is married to the former Esther Clark of Alger and has two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Dowell of North Olmstead, and Mrs. Jean Hall of Cleveland.

Scouts at Jamboree Tour Los Angeles

Boy Scouts from the Harding Area Council toured Los Angeles while attending the Third National Boy Scout Jamboree. They made the tour the second day there from their camp at Irvine Ranch in Santa Ana.

In touring the city the boys took a "trip to the moon" at the Griffith Park Observatory, a trip to the zoo and toured Beverly Hills seeing the homes of such stars as Jack Benny, Marilyn Monroe, James Mason, Jimmy Durante and many others. They were guests of the Elks Lodge where they saw local TV stars in person.

Another day's activities included their special project, the building of an observation tower. Bob Richardson, Tom Wilson, Ted Williams and Gary Stevens carried the water, Gerald Lowery, Russell Kear, Chauncey Lake, and James Lightner did the cooking and Ned Bibler, Dick Parshall, and Jerry Gundrum made the rope for the tower.

Bucyrus Woman Named 'Chapeau' Of Ohio 8 et 40

Mrs. Leah M. Chance of Bucyrus last night was elected head of the Ohio 8 et 40, women's auxiliary honor society of the American Legion.

She was named le chapeau at the conclusion of the two-day state 8 et 40 convention in Cleveland. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Gertrude H. Moore, Cleveland, le demi chapeau premiere; Mrs. Mary H. Weisend, Youngstown, le demi chapeau deuxieme; Mrs. Mabelle Gamble, Van Wert, l'archiviste, and Mrs. Helen Killworth, Columbus, l'aumonier.

The American Legion opened its state convention in Cleveland today, and The Associated Press reported every room in Cleveland's seven major hotels was sold out. More than 15,000 are expected. Some 50 or 60 Marion residents are attending.

He was state budget officer and finance commissioner when he entered the Army Air Force in World War II.

City Water Department Short 5 Million Gallons

MIDWEST CITY, Okla. (AP)—Puzzled city officials, admitting it would be tough to hide it in a bathtub, are trying to find out what happened to five million gallons of water last month.

Production from wells was nearly 55½ million gallons but only 50½ million went through the water meters.

Mayor Marion Reed said nearby Oklahoma City, plagued by a water shortage, was not suspected.

Inside Labor

False Friends

By Victor Riesel

PARIS

The French just don't like us.

The more prosperous they become, the less they like us.

RIESEL

And they show it in a sulking, though thoroughly civilized and tolerantly polite, style—which is the latest in Parisian political fashions.

They are perfectly happy for us to come over and play at the hilly Rue and Place Pigalle — at 20 bucks per bottle of wine.

They are happy to have you wander the narrow, twisting streets of Montmartre and pick up some street artists's daubings in the hope you've bought yourself a future Toulouse Lautrec; or go over to the left bank and sit with the existentialists at the Deux Magots sidewalk cafe.

But they'd be happier still, if all Americans went right home after that — and took our NATO Army, and the European Defense Community force and all our specialists with us.

IF WE DON'T go in the next few months, they have a plan to get us out. If this fails, they will just ignore us and our military efforts and collaborate with the Russians.

There is good reason to believe that our observers here have passed this on to President Eisenhower, telling him that only a personal visit to the Continent can save the international army he launched in the hope that it would deter all aggression in Europe.

The French plan is simple: It is to encourage a wild outburst of working class demonstrations some time this fall — a "spontaneous" national wildcat general strike; a labor upheaval against high prices, high taxes, low wages and especially against costly military collaboration with the U.S.

IT WILL be a phony. When it breaks it can be controlled and quieted in a few hours. But it won't.

At that time there will be a new government in France, for this one is expected to fall soon enough.

That new government, whether it will be the leftwing cabinet now being discussed by Socialist and Radical leaders, or a "progressive conservative" premiership, will secretly encourage the labor demonstrations.

Any time you read of wild labor strikes here from now on just remember that the Communist national labor federation (CGT) is only some 1,250,000 strong.

The Socialists have less than 300,000 dues paying laborites. And most of these unions are flat on their back.

ANY TIME the government wants to put down rioting and political strikes it can. You need only look at the Tommy guns the police carry when they really want to keep order — and you know just who is boss.

But the new premier will shrug his shoulders and send word to President Eisenhower that there is nothing France can do.

It must either take one or two Communists into the government for the first time in years, or it must adopt a "common program" to end the labor unrest, it will be said.

It is known to some of our embassy people here (the ones who really work at looking out for our interests) that this "common program" has already been worked out by the vacationing French political leaders.

THIS PROGRAM, as it will be passed on to President Eisenhower and later adopted here unless Washington acts swiftly, calls for the end of a military alliance with the U.S. against the U.S.S.R.

It calls for drastic slashing of the French military budget, which means paralyzing NATO and the European Defense Community.

It means easing off in Indo-China, thus actually permitting the Sovietized Chinese to have their way in that part of the Orient.

It will mean that France will revive East - West trade with Russia and all the satellites, thereby easing the terrific economic pressure which now threatens to crack the Soviet world wide open.

THE FRENCH will tell the White House they must do all this to cut federal expenditures, lower taxes, raise wages and ease the national strain on their own people, or face a "labor revolt" as in East Germany.

Then all will be quiet. The working class will go back to work on its bicycles and scooters. Paris again will tinkle with the tintinnabulation of the little horns which have found their way into so much American music.

But there will be little harmony between France and the U.S. We will have sunk some three billion dollars into rehabilitating the French, so they could be arrogant with us.

The money will not have been entirely wasted. It helped stop Communism in 1948 and 1949. But don't expect any gratitude.

The French want "good table and a good bed." They don't want us nudging them into unpleasantries with Russia.

If you don't believe it, come see and hear for yourself. Paris is still beautiful.

That Blankety-Blank Rhee

The trouble with President Syngman Rhee of the Republic of Korea is that he stays the same. He never changes his mind.

That is a crime in an era when most politicians live by the rule of expediency. It has earned the old gentleman the disfavor of most of the politicians while winning him the admiration of most of the people who admire integrity.

His newest outburst is a warning that if the Reds are still stalling six months after the end of a 90-day truce, he will not be responsible for what may happen if their military hirelings are still inside Korea—not just the southern half of Korea but Korea as a whole.

This is a perfectly reasonable position. It deals in advance with the possibility the Reds may use a truce as they have used negotiations in advance of a truce to stall off an opposition they feel certain will never launch an attack against them.

It is as reasonable as President Rhee's previous position that any deal for ending the stalemate which left alien troops on Korean soil would be a bad deal for Korea and he would not agree to it.

There are, of course, many things besides integrity which must be considered while dealing with the Korean problem. This has proved bothersome to others besides Syngman Rhee—Generals MacArthur and Van Fleet, for example.

It has caused them to become storm centers of controversy, too, though the idea persists that those who stuck to integrity in this grim tragedy of international power politics will be remembered longer and more favorably than those who stuck to wishful thinking and wistful explaining.

All Issues Decided

There are no further issues to be decided in Congress this summer. It can adjourn now with the best wishes of its constituents and let its members disperse themselves among the grass roots, the broken fences, the county courthouses and the musty law offices where they long to be.

This does not mean there can be no further debate and no additional bitterness about public questions. These are matters of another nature, not to be confused with legislative issues, which are fundamental differences of opinion. There are no further differences of opinion in the first session of the current Congress which could be classed as fundamental and resolved by the passage of laws.

The Eisenhower administration is going to be given almost everything it wants and permitted to take charge of the government until next January, barring some unforeseen need for an emergency legislative session.

The political pot which has been kept boiling furiously since the beginning of the Eisenhower-Stevenson campaign last fall is going to be shoved to the back of the stove and let simmer for awhile.

The seeds of revolt inside the Russian orbit and the seeds of independence inside the United States orbit are going to be allowed to sprout.

A curtailed rate of dollar bombardment to soften up the Communist conspiracy is going to be tried out, with the proviso that it can be stepped up if it doesn't seem to be working.

Questions which can't be answered once and for all without steam-rollering a dauntless opposition are going to be shelved a little longer—Hawaiian statehood, Sen. Bricker's constitutional safeguard against treaties, the St. Lawrence seaway and collective responsibility for congressional investigations.

It is almost but not quite like old times when Congress buzzed to a stalemate by dog days and dispersed, confident that time and nature would take care of everything which hadn't been made shipshape by the passage of one more law which would need to be amended in the next session.

The problems are tougher now. But congressmen still are philosophical enough to know there is a time to quit grappling with them.

New York Bites the Bullet

Of all the cities which must have mass transportation or die, New York is first and foremost because of its state of chronic traffic congestion.

It will be regarded by transportation authorities as a precedent that the city which needs mass transportation most has jumped its base rate of fares 200 per cent for subway service in the last five years.

The hard decision to do this was made outside the realm of local politics by business-minded people. Every politician in New York City will be tempted to make votes with it. But for the first time since inflation began, the city's public - owned transportation system will have a margin of operating revenue. Its capital costs, past and future, will continue to be met out of local taxes.

For many years, a 5 - cent fare covered operating costs. On July 1, 1948, it took a 10-cent fare to cover them. On July 25, 1953, the fare will go to 15 cents — about as accurate a measurement of what inflation, shortened work weeks and bargaining power have done to transportation as transportation authorities could find anywhere in the United States.

Armistice or Treaty?

By David Lawrence

U.N. Retreating From High Idealism in Korea

It is easy to see why President Rhee of the independent Republic of Korea and the United Nations' agent—the American State Department—misunderstand one another. They have all along been talking about two different things.

The United States—under orders from Great Britain and other Allies engaged in the fighting—is talking about a peace treaty or agreement without military coercion.

Syngman Rhee is talking about an armistice which either side can at any time terminate when the palaver gets too long-drawn-out and there's no sign of a willingness on the part of the Communists to agree to any unification of Korea.

To the credit of President Eisenhower and Secretary Dulles, it must be noted that they concur 100 per cent with the concept which permits liberty of action to the Republic of Korea if the "political conference" should fail. But they do not at the same time give him any assurance that they will stand by him with military support of any kind if he ever tries to exercise his independent rights.

At that moment the U.N. will evidently be through with the Korean adventure and will not fight again. The war will be over, and the Communists know now that they can talk on indefinitely and there will be no pressure of a military nature placed upon them.

This vital information unfortunately was disclosed in President Eisenhower's original letter to Syngman Rhee, when it was unnecessarily proclaimed that the United Nations would never fight to unify Korea.

The exact text of the paragraph in the statement issued by Secretary Dulles in which he concedes the ultimate right of the Republic of Korea to "go it alone" is as follows:

"President Rhee has sought various assurances from the United States and has reserved his government's position in the event of a collapse of the political talks which will follow an armistice. This, we believe, he is entitled to do."

But what can he do? He can plunge his armies into the fray at the end of six months and go down fighting for a unified country.

The United Nations command, on the other hand, has told the Chinese Communists — according to the Peiping radio statement last week end—that there is no time limit on the armistice.

This could mean, of course, that any party violating it would be guilty of "aggression."

The United Nations command, moreover, now has assured the Communist negotiations that the Republic of Korea would be given no assistance in the event of "any aggressive action."

Likewise, the foreign ministers of Great Britain, the United States and France announced last week that they had agreed to resume fighting in Korea in the event of "aggression."

But what's aggression? Only a deviation from the armistice military line. It assures the perpetuation of the line dividing Korea.

This means a stalemate. What Rhee is interested in is not assurances against "aggression" but against stagnation—indefinite and unlimited. This he evidently will not be given, and that's a clear victory for the Communist side..

Despite all the talk about breaking a truce or armistice, the fact remains that Rhee is merely holding out for his sovereign right to wait and see—to decide at the end of six months whether any progress is being made and to go ahead then with any measures that he believes will precipitate a settlement.

He still thinks it's an armistice and not a peace treaty being determined at Panmunjom.

Once an armistice is signed, the public opinion of the Allied countries, which is ready for peace at any price or appeasement—anything to get it over with—will not be interested in a resumption of fighting, and the leverage that Rhee has today will be gone.

Hence he has been making his valiant effort to get something more tangible from the Allies, who concede they will be deserting him.

He did agree to "collaborate" and to "abide by the terms of the armistice," and would faithfully observe his promise, but not forever.

That's why he reserved the right to take independent action, and now America grants that he has that empty right.

So the tragic story of Korea will soon have another ignominious chapter to record— when the United Nations walked up the hill with the flag of idealism flying proudly and then marched down, retreating from the principle established in its resolution of October 7, 1950, and denouncing "military victory" as a modern delusion and as never having been the objective in the first place.

It will be hard to explain all this to the parents and relatives of the 25,000 American boys who are dead or to the next of kin of the more than 100,000 who were in the casualty lists as wounded or missing in action in Korea.

They Mechanized Papa

By TRUMAN TWILL

After they made an engineer out of Mama with household appliances, they soaped up Papa with a power mower. It couldn't have been a meaner trick if they had booby-trapped the old goat with a land mine.

It was the first labor - saving device that ever had come his way, except for the kind the boss kept installing to cover up for the old man's inefficiency as a breadwinner. And it was to be expected that he wouldn't know what to do with it.

So he bought the lot next door and planted that in grass too, so he could give his mechanical mowing machine a thorough workout when he got the blasted thing started. He dug up all the flower beds and converted them to turf. He bought more fertilizer so he could raise more grass to make a better showing and hold his head higher in the presence of other mechanized males.

And unless the legislators pass a law to keep the old fool from making a complete fool of himself he will move to the suburbs, acquire an acre of temperamental turf and start whining about getting a bigger power mower so he can acquire still another acre of turf and work himself to death faster.

It still has not flashed across his hazy perception that he is in danger of making the blunder Mama made when she was converted into a mechanical engineer and began to sweep every day and wash every whipstitch, instead of taking advantage of her labor-saving devices by sticking to her original schedules.

Mama branched out. She took sewing lessons on her electric sewing machine. She turned a cold shoulder on the wash woman, the ironing woman, the cleaning woman, the dressmaker, the curtain-stretcher and the cook. She tried to do everything for herself.

She went mad with power, Mama did, and now Papa is in the booby-hatch with her, grass-happy as a spring lamb with big ideas about grazing every square inch from hell to breakfast, or bloat to butcher, whichever comes first.

All of this trooped through a gone-to-grass suburbanite's head last night while the feet that belonged to the head were picked up and laid down thousands of times in the futile pursuit of a power mower.

What were the events leading up to the tragedy of an acre of turf that must be mowed an average of every seven days from late April to mid-October? What insidious insanity crept into the crevices of a cracked cranium and pushed peremptorily aside the solid substance of plain, ordinary reason?

What could have put, put, put into the head of a sane man the idea he should pit, pit pit, his life against the lives of millions of blades of grass?

Put, put, put. Pit, Pit, Pit. Around and around and around. There she goes and watch your toes. In and out and around and about. Mow everything down till the turf turns brown.

Chug, chug, chug you goofy lug. Add more lime in the summertime. Use bone meal to get that feel. Sweat you slug for the big green rug. Just add more gas to cut more grass. Squirt on oil to lighten toil.

And five hours later you'll begin to hate 'er. That's how long it now takes to mow the grass at our house—five hours— thanks to that great modern invention, the power mower.

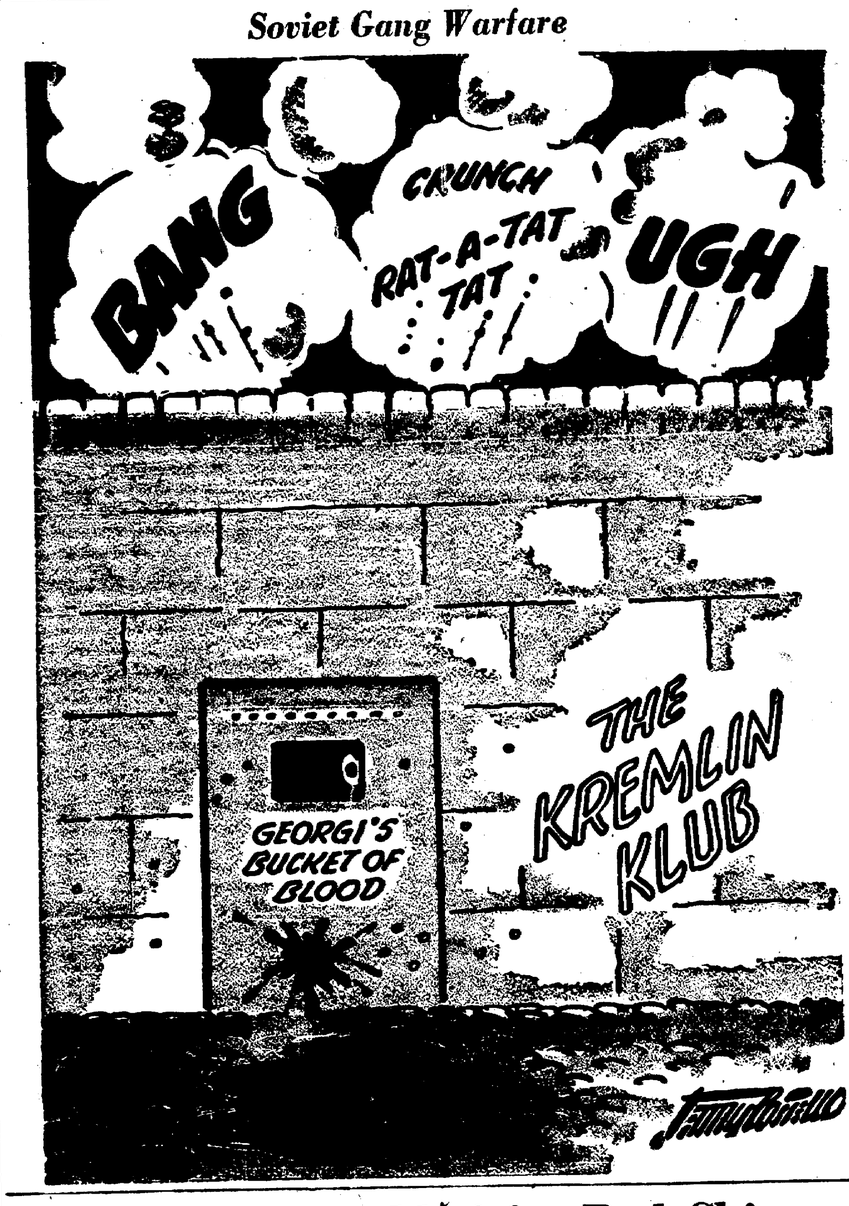
Soviet Gang Warfare



New 'Cannon Fodder' for Red Chinese

By Frank Oliver

HONG KONG

Communist China has made several clumsy efforts to enlist the financial aid of overseas Chinese through Southeast Asia. But now they have begun working, much more successfully, on the younger generation in these areas.

I have just traveled up from Indonesian ports to Hong Kong with a group of these converts to the new religion. It must be called that because these youngsters believe in Marxism so fervently and their hymn-singing sessions had all the enthusiasm and abandon of a Billy Sunday revival meeting.

Agents of the Peiping regime are now everywhere throughout Southeast Asia, and they seem to work unhindered in the territory of Indonesia, where the government's domestic troubles are more than enough to occupy full attention.

Red agents have smuggled into Indonesia Communist textbooks and these are being used in Chinese schools in Djakarta, Surabaya, Macassar and other cities.

On the principle of "catch them young," Communist agents are busy with Chinese children in their teens, feeding them mentally on a Communist version of liberty, equality and fraternity and appealing to their nationalistic feelings.

Thanks to Communist teachings these children see the prewar history of China as a period during which Chiang Kai-shek and other leaders allowed foreigners to walk on China's neck and the postwar period as one in which Mao Tse-tung established China a a powerful nation, unified the country and made Chinese soldiers the equal of the American and European troops they have been fighting in Korea.

This has worked exceedingly well for the Red agents and they are now reaping this summer's crop of new converts.

So ardent for Marxis and Mao are these youngsters that their parents have no influence over them. They are severing all family ties in defiance of family traditions going back centuries.

This reporter saw in Macassar the first batch of 100 children and young men and women (ages from about 15 to 22) taken on as deck passengers at the expense of the Chinese Communist consul.

The writer, an expert on China, spent 16 years in the Far East for Reuters and The Associated Press. Former Washington correspondent for the Times of London and New York Bureau Chief for Kemsley Newspapers, he has had 27 years of top-notch reporting experience.

They cheerfully signed documents prepared by the Indonesian authorities waiving all rights to return to their families and the island of their birth.

Parents lined the wharf to weep for the children they will never see again but the children were cheerful and singing, stopping occasionally to pat rather pityingly mothers or grandmothers who didn't understand how wonderful the Red religion is and how much more important the state is than the family.

From Macassar we went to Surabaya and picked up another 150, then to Semarang for 150 and to Jakarta for a contingent of 800.

We finally sailed with 1,200 young ardent Reds as deck passengers, all in uniforms, each with a new suitcase, a new bicycle, a new thermos bottle and a new fountain pen. The uniformity of all this equipment showed clearly that it came from the same source. All tickets were paid for by the Communist consuls in the various ports.

They were comparatively little trouble on the journey except that some complained bitterly of the poor "service" on this capitalist ship.

Mostly they were well behaved. They were up on deck by 5:30 a.m. and in batches did exercises on the foredeck. Much of the day was spent in groups on the lower decks singing Communist hymns under the baton of a leader and to music provided by five youngsters with harmonicas.

Their arrival in Hong Kong wasn't received with enthusiasm by the authorities. The ship was anchored at an isolated part of the enormous harbor and police patrol boats circled the ship continuously.

When arrangements were complete the whole 1,200 were landed at the Kowloon railway terminus where they were taken by train to the Communist China border 20 miles north of here.

There, at Shumchun, they were transferred to a Chinese Communist train bound for Canton.

All these youngsters, they included boys and girls, believed they were going to Canton for university education but it was significant that on the train between Kowloon and the Communist border the leaders of this contingent blossomed out in full Chinese Red Army uniforms and marched their younger recruits across the Shumchum River which separates free Hong Kong from Red China.

They might have been going to a university but the whole 1,200 looked suspiciously like new cannon fodder.

My shipload had been preceded by a thousand on an earlier ship and was followed within a few days by another 1,200 all from Indonesia, well over 3,000 converts to the Communist religion from Indonesia this summer.

They are reported to be arriving from other parts of Southeast Asia in similar numbers.

All have had a high-school education, all have been thoroughly indoctrinated.

If their enthusiasm for and attachment to the new religion lasts, they will make good agents to indoctrinate others overseas.

If they become disillusioned they can still be made to work for the regime for China today is like other police states—you do as you are told, or else.

Trees Are Hobby

HAMILTON (AP) — Whenever George Sinclair wants to give someone a gift, he goes into his backyard and digs up a tree. He grows trees from seed as a hobby. He has given away more than 300 saplings, most of which now are on lawns from Hamilton to Toronto.

Elephant Report

NEW DELHI (AP)—It's official: An elephant has the strength of 30 men. Assam state public works authorities looked over road-building projects and reported one elephant can trample down the amount of earth that it takes 30 men to do.

Refinement is the lifting of one's self upwards from the merely sensual, the effort of the soul to etherialize the common wants and uses of life.—Henry Ward Beecher

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Lady in a Tough Spot

A terrible thing happened to a girl the other day. She was named "Miss Universe." Our heart goes out to her. She can never live up to it and she will never live it down.

There should be resolutions of sympathy. She is the victim of a raw deal from the world of glamor propagandists, publicity agents, ballyhoo men and beauty contest promotors.

Cleopatra claimed only the title of "Miss Egypt & Environs." Salome knew there were territorial limits.

The best Juliet did was to win as "Miss Verona." Godiva settled for "Miss Coventry."

Again our sympathies to Christiane Martel of France, winner of the "Miss Universe" crown. She has taken on too much territory and will regret it. Nobody knows a more complete eclipse than a last year's "Miss America."

"Miss Universe" will have tougher going, even if she is remembered that long. For already she is feeling the scorn of millions of other women demanding, "What's she got that a Miss America, a Miss Australia or a Miss Hawaii hasn't got"

One day she will marry and hear that stinging crack, "So you're Miss Universe! And no button on that shirt collar yet!"

Or even worse, "Believe me, baby, that pie crust could have been made lighter by Miss Punxsutawney."

He will always bring up a Miss Moosup who was a better hand with the coffee.

-:-

Miss Universe, a few fair questions. Can you bake a cake?

How are you with a dish towel?—Does a vacuum cleaner cramp your style?—Can you get anywhere with a mop or the laundry?—

Can you cook eggs without burning?—Can you whip up a good meal or are you the delicattessen type?—How goes it with a budget problem?—

Lemme see you perform with a thread and needle.

As Miss Universe you're covering a lot of ground, baby. Even the Gabor girls stake out a claim on only a couple of continents.

We fear you are overextended, pointed too high, lovely as you indisputably are. The same would be true of anybody similarly honored. You're in a global tough spot.

We think the runner up, Myrna Hansen of Chicago and the third place gal, Kinuno Ito of Japan got a better break. Not nearly so much will be expected of them.

However, all the luck in the world, Miss Martel! And hold your fire when you hear all those sotto voices, "So she's the one! Wait 'til next year! ! !"

Ephriam Jeffe, who resigned from the New York Transit Board in that subway fare dispute, got up and gave his seat to somebody else.—For a while we thought he was just blocking the doorway.—

New York's big ticker tape welcome for Ben Hogan found Ben nervous for the first time. He was in a trap from which he couldn't escape, no club would do him any good and he was forced to commit the cardinal sin of golf, LOOKING UP.

In the tens of thousands cheering for Hogan there were, of course, thousands who never played golf in their lives, couldn't tell a mashie from a putter or were sure who he was. In fact, a woman in the welcoming crowd asked us, "What did he do?"

President Eisenhower is on a diet. Getting so heavy around the waistline it's an effort to pick up a putt?

"Lady With a Spear" is not the story of an old Hippodrome chorus girl, but a tale by a lady icthyologist.

News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO — It was Saturday, July 24, 1943.

Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's American 7th Army troops, victors in a swift knockout of western Sicily, were moving toward a showdown battle with elite German divisions which had failed to crack under an 8-day assault by the British 8th Army at Catania on the east coast.

Robert E. White, president of the National City Bank and chairman of Marion County's United War Chest drive the previous fall, was elected as the Marion Representative of Ohio Division, Inc. of the National War Fund.

A. A. Van Atta, operator of a wholesale electrical supply and paint store on N. Prospect St. for several years, announced purchase of the Bain building, at 375-377 W. Center St. from the Marion County Bank.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — It was Monday, July 24, 1933.

City police cleared up two "mysteries" after each had caused a momentary stir in the community. An explosion felt in various parts of the city was traced to quarry blasting near Marion. Meanwhile, a search of McKinley Park Lake for a "mystery package" tossed into the lake several days before ended when it was disclosed a motorist had tossed a big turtle into the lake as he drove by.

The city's first official request to share in federal public works funds was made when council asked the state highway department to seek funds for reconditioning N. Main St. from George St. to Copeland Ave. and Kenton Ave. from the Erie Railroad to the west corporation.

The Marion Civic orchestra and The Mimes, two entertainment groups, shared the spotlight at the second Marion Chautauqua season program in Garfield Park.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Minor Keller of Nevada.

Walter Waddell, 50, of three miles west of Waldo, was fatally shot when a shotgun he was carrying was accidentally discharged as he climbed a fence. He was headed for a field to drive dogs away from his flock of sheep.

Miss Hope Fisher of Worcester, Mass., arrived to spend a month with her father, C. C. Fisher of Mt. Vernon Ave.

OSU Alumni Picnic Planned

Will Feature Movies Of Michigan Game

Ohio Staters will have a chance to enjoy again last year's football victory over Michigan, when university officials show motion pictures of the game at the Marion County OSU Alumni picnic Aug. 11. The evening picnic will be held at the Marion Country Club. All Alumni, former students, friends of the university and their families are invited and will soon be receiving notifications through the mail.

William Dunning, president of the Marion County association announced that Jack Fullen, executive secretary of the Ohio State University Alumni Association, Kenyon Campbell, field director of the Ohio State University Development Fund, and Joe Conrad, alumni field representative, will be present.

J. F. Weis, Marion County Development Fund chairman, announced he has been notified by Bland L. Stradley, university vice president, that Marion County has been awarded one of the fund scholarships, and that the student recipient will be announced by the university in a few days.

Joseph C. Fazio was appointed treasurer of the Marion County Association recently to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Marion C. Burton.

Soviet Autocracy

By George Sokolsky

FRIDAY — SOKOLSKY.

Governments, like individuals, seek legitimacy, if it is possible. Even governments which are the products of revolution desire a continuing relationship with the past, once the revolution and the attendant reign of terror are over.

SOKOLSKY

Respectability requires not only a due regard for national traditions but a link with the historic past of the nation.

It was this sense of relationships which so impressed Talleyrand and impelled Napoleon to cast aside his wife, Josephine, and to marry into the Hapsburgs, which thus made his progeny, if not himself, the legitimate ruler of France.

HE MARRIED into regal respectability. The same motive dominated the thinking of the Holy Alliance after the Conference of Vienna in 1815.

Even in China, where the people were accustomed to changes in dynasties, several of them of non - Chinese origin, legitimacy played so great a role that Sun Yat-sen changed the capital from Peking to Nanking because the North refused to acknowledge him. After his death, he was deified by public opinion.

Thereupon, Chiang Kai-shek established himself as Sun Yat-sen's heir and ruled the country with that sanction.

Even Mao Tze-tung finds it advantageous to use Mme. Sun Yat-sen in his government because it gives his regime an aura of legitimacy.

THE RUSSIAN Revolution started as a palace uprising with Prince Lvov in charge, supported by members of the Romanov family. When Kerensky took over, his was called the provisional government and an effort was made to find some continuing basis in traditional Russian life and government.

The Constituent Assembly was called for the purpose of giving Democratic authority to the change of regime.

I was present at this meeting in 1917 when the Bolskeviks killed the Constituent Assembly. In terms of political organization, that was the effective climax of the Russian revolution.

Lenin and Trotzky founded the Soviet state as a revolutionary act, based upon the will of a minority, accompanied by a devastating terror.

Civil war and foreign intervention provided a justification for the terror, as they had for the French Revolutionists who eventually succumbed to Napoleon.

THE LENIN regime was alien, based upon the concepts of a German philosopher, Karl Marx.

However, as the years passed, the pull of tradition was so great that autocracy rather than dictatorship of the proletariat reasserted itself.

Autocracy is an indigenous Russian concept of government. Ivan the Terrible is a Russian prototype of ruler and he became Stalin's hero.

Thus Stalin departed from the Marxist-Leninist ideas of government and restored the normal Russian method, autocracy.

But Stalin needed legitimacy which Lenin never tried to establish. Stalin created a god—Lenin. Everything he did was in the name of Lenin.

Stalin killed Trotsky and most of the old Bolsheviks, purging millions of persons, in order to leave no possibility of a challenge to his right to be an autocrat.

It was not until World War II that Stalin, the hated, became Stalin the author of victory.

ONE PHASE of the present struggle in Russia is that there is no legitimate method for change of the top officials in Soviet Russia.

Actually, in an autocracy, the only legitimate method of change can be by inheritance.

Stalin had re-established autocracy but failed to produce a method of inheritance. He could not pass the government to his son; he chose his closest associates, Malenkov, Beria and Molotov.

But in an autocracy, as in a democracy, the head of state cannot be a committee. Stalin must have known that because he was one of a committee of three, Kamenev, Zinoviev and Stalin, who succeeded to Lenin's power.

Stalin killed Kamenev and Zinoviev and restored the czarist autocracy.

MALENKOV has now removed Beria, but that does not solve his problem, for whereas he can, by murder, establish legitimate succession to Stalin, he has not been able to become an autocrat.

He still is controlled by a small Presidium and the army is asserting measures of independence—how much is not clear.

It took Stalin 12 years to become an autocrat. How long it will take Malenkov or someone else to become an autocrat and how much blood will be shed before the normal autocracy is established no one can guess.

But this seems clear from Russian history: autocracy is the normal political concept of the Russians and whoever can be the autocrat will take over.

Ex-Delaware Pastor Has Two Jobs in Army

A former Delaware minister, regularly assigned as quartermaster supply officer in the 28th Infantry Division in Goeppingen, Germany, assumes the pulpit in local Army churches there also.

Capt. Emmanuel P. Alford of near Coshocton, minister of Grace Methodist Church in Delaware before he returned to active Army duty in 1950, assumes the pulpits in the summer months and during the remainder of the year when division chaplains leave to conduct services for troops undergoing field maneuvers.

As supply officer, he provides the division with food rations as well as being responsible for more than two million dollars worth of equipment. In more than a year at his present job, Alfrod has compiled a spotless record—no losses of property and no damage reports.

A veteran of World War II, he attended Ohio Wesleyan University. He wears the American Theater Campaign Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Theater Ribbon, World War II Victory Ribbon and the Army of Occupation for duty in Germany.

His mother, Mrs. E. P. Alford, lives near Coshocton and his wife, Doris, resides in Danville, Va.

Everybody Says It Pays To Trade At Lennon's

Social Affairs

ANNOUNCEMENT is being made of the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Doretha Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland D. Owen of Delaware, and George A. Smith Jr. He is the son of George A. Smith, 403 S. State St., and the late Mrs. Smith.

The wedding will be an event of Aug. 16 and will take place at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church at Delaware. The custom of open church will be observed.

Miss Owen is a graduate of Willis High School, Delaware, and the College of St. Mary of the Springs, Columbus, where she received her bachelor of science degree in home economics and fine arts. She now is associated with the Delaware Medical Clinic as receptionist-secretary.

Her fiance attended Harding High School and was graduated from Riverside Military Academy, Gainesville, Ga. He also attended Ohio State University, Columbus, for two years. For the past three years he has been serving with the U. S. Coast Guard and is to be discharged on Aug. 6.

Plans to assist the Pleasant Garden Club in its flower show scheduled Aug. 1 and 2 were made when the Pleasant Planters Junior Garden Club met recently at the home of Betty Jo Scott. Bingo was played during the social hour. The next meeting of the club will be held Aug. 18 at the home of Sandra Herr.

FLOWERY GEMS — To add to milady's charm, the floral motif in diamonds is carried out with water lily "appliqued" onto skin, rose-shaped ring and "ivy" bracelet.

The first pheasants arrived in America from China in 1881 and were released in Oregon's Willamette valley.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Little and daughter Caroline of near Upper Sandusky and R. K. Combs of near Marion recently returned from a five-week tour through the western and southern states. Mrs. Little visited her sister, Mrs. Florence Nuslein of Weiser, Idaho, whom she had not seen for 17 years, and another sister, Mrs. Hazel Sperry of Portland, Ore., whom she had not seen for 13 years. She also visited two cousins, Harry Wirrick and Mrs. Anna O'Leary of Dee, Ore. The party was in the Black Hills of South Dakota and Yellow Stone National Park in Wyoming and came through the Redwood Forests of California. On the way home, they stopped at St. Petersburg, Fla., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Friley, formerly of Marion. They covered 19 states in all.

Marion Area Students On Honor Roll at OSU

The following Marion area students were named to the honor roll of Ohio State University College of Agriculture during the spring quarter:

Russell L. Baughman of Mt. Gilead; Lowell E. Hetzner of Radnor; Harmon A. Stull of Richwood; Donald W. Longshore of Sunbury; Robert M. Huddle of Sycamore; Donald E. Long of Tiro; Harold H. Hale of Galena; David I. Gooding and Glenn F. Lackey of Delaware.

An average of 3.25 or better must be maintained to reach the dean's list.

Mrs. Richard Price Is Candidate For Queen of Sorority

Mrs. Richard Price, above, a member of Gamma Mu Chapter, Delta Theta Tau Sorority, will be the local chapter's candidate for "Delta Queen," to be named at the sorority's golden jubilee convention which now is under way at the Deshler-Hilton Hotel in Columbus.

The queen, who will be selected Friday, will be crowned at "Cinderella's Golden Ball" which is to follow a golden anniversary banquet on Saturday night.

Several members of the local chapter are attending various sessions of the convention. The official delegate is Mrs. Vernon Pinkerton.

Pleasant Garden Club Members Elect New Officers

Officers for the new year, headed by Mrs. Ralph Williams as president, were elected when the Pleasant Garden Club met Tuesday with Mrs. Leslie Bunnell, near Marion. Serving as assistant hostess was Miss Emma Leffler.

Named to serve with Mrs. Williams were Mrs. W. Earl Thomas, vice president; Mrs. Paul W. Augenstein, recording secretary; Mrs. Mabel Daugherty, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Carl Baseler, treasurer; Mrs. Marion Craven, reporter.

Serving on the nominating committee were Mrs. Ray Dutt, Mrs. Emerson Dietsch and Mrs. Gerald Rasey.

Mrs. Carl Baseler, president, presided for the meeting, devotions were conducted by Mrs. Starling Somerlot, and members responded to roll call with "My Garden's Worst Enemy."

A report of a district garden club meeting held recently in Cardington was given by Mrs. Baseler. At that meeting, Mrs. T. Jones of Radnor was elected new regional director of District No. 7. Mrs. Paul Augenstein gave a report of a recent trip by several members to the Columbus rose garden.

Program topic was "Weed Control," and guest speaker was Arthur Smith, county agricultural extension agent.

In a red, white and blue arrangement contest, first prize was won by Mrs. Baseler, and second by Mrs. Thomas. At the next meeting, Aug. 25, with Mrs. Marion Craven, each member is to bring a weathered weed arrangement. Mrs. Stuckey of Prospect was a guest.

Supper Party? Try Noodle Tuna Casserole

Having a supper party in your garden or on your terrace? Why not make it especially festive and serve this chived noodle tuna casserole, a gourment-type dish that tastes so good your guests will never believe it was assembled from cans and packages.

Tender egg noodles and canned tuna are temptingly combined with packaged cream cheese, chives and chicken soup to provide a bubbling casserole that will be the hit of the evening.

CHIVED NOODLE TUNA CASSEROLE

Ingredients: 1 tablespoon salt, 3 quarts boiling water, 8 ounces medium egg noodles (about 4 cups), 1 (10½-oz.) can condensed cream of chicken soup, 1 (5-oz.) pkg. cream cheese and chives, softened, 2 (6½-oz.) cans chunk-style tuna, drained, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, ½ cup milk, 2 tablespoons minced onion.

Method: Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

In a saucepan, combine remaining ingredients; mix well. Bring to boiling point over medium heat, stirring constantly. Add cooked noodles; mix lightly. Turn into greased 1½-quart casserole; cover. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) 25 minutes. Sprinkle with additional chopped chives, if desired.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Little Known About Soviet Premier

Inscrutable Malenkov Mystery Man of Kremlin

Ediotr's note—How does Georgi Malenkov look? Eddy Gilmore, AP correspondent in Moscow for 11 years, is one of the few Americans who have seen the Soviet premier in action. Gilmore gives his appraisal of Malenkov—and of his chances of staying premier—in this article, last of a series written this side of the Iron Curtain.

By EDDY GILMORE

PARIS (AP)—Who is running Soviet Russia today?

Is it really Georgi M. Malenkov? Could it be V. M. Molotov? Is Nikolai Bulganin the real man in charge? Is it possible Nikita Krushchev is manipulating things from the dark corners of the Kremlin? Or is it government by committee as the Communist party would have us believe—a committee composed of the party, the government and the Supreme Soviet?

Or, is it the army?

Frankly, I don't know and I doubt if anyone outside the Kremlin knows.

The dismissal of L. P. Beria—listed officially as Malenkov's No. 1 lieutenant—has narrowed the field. But it has also confused it.

A wise Western diplomat, with many years' experience in Soviet affairs, is not completely convinced by the Beria story. He explains:

"This could be another grand piece of Russian make-believe and deception. They may be trying to confuse the West at this extremely important moment of our times. The Beria disgrace would be a huge hoax."

I do not hold with this diplomat—which, I'll be the first to admit, doesn't mean very much.

I believe Malenkov is in charge and has been in charge since Stalin was stricken. I believe he saw Beria stealing up behind him and out of the corner of his quick, Slavic eye, caught a glimmer of the knife in Beria's hand. That he felt strong enough, or desperate enough, to eliminate the high chieftain of the political police, with his principal henchmen.

If this is true then a lot more people are due for disgrace and denunciation in Russia. For Beria had a lot of friends and followers. He was a policeman and in any dictatorship there are a lot of policemen. They don't like to give up their authority lightly, or at all.

A marvel of contemporary Russian history has been how Malenkov was able to bring off the denunciation and firing of his right hand man, the fellow who nominated him to the post of premier. It took an unusual man, or men, to work the trick.

The rivalry between Malenkov and Beria was apparent to a number of western diplomats before I left Moscow. A certain Western envoy used to refer to Malenkov in conversation as No. 1, to Beria as No. 2 and to Molotov as No. 3.

Many times I heard him say . . . "No. 2 is No. 1, and No. 1 is No. 2. And my arithmetic is not good enough to do addition and subtraction with Nos. 3, 4 and 5."

What do we know about Malenkov? Not much. I've seen him a lot of times. But I've never had such a good look at him as that Sunday afternoon in mid-March just after Stalin's death and burial. That was when the supreme Soviet met in the Kremlin and elected him chairman of the council of Ministers, or premier, on Beria's endorsement.

I thought of Stalin's characteristic entrances onto the platform of the Supreme Soviet's meeting place. I'd seen the old Georgian saunter onto the podium so many times. He would look neither to his right nor left, but out over the audience. No smile. No frown. Just that cold Stalin stare. Then, after many minutes, when you wondered if the applause was ever going to stop, he'd sit in one of the rear rows on the platform.

Molotov, Malenkov or Beria would usually sit closest to him, but never in the seat immediately next to Stalin's. They always left a seat' space between the dictator and themselves. Stalin seemed to like it this way.

So I thought of Stalin when Malenkov walked onto the stage.

He looked out over the audience and seemed to give the deputies some recognition. The applause was loud. But Malenkov didn't applaud himself as Stalin used to applaud himself. He let the clapping go a little while and then halted it by sitting down. And he sat down with the rest of the boys.

The few foreign correspondents at that Kremlin session had good seats, and I came early enough to get one of the vacant front row chairs. A plainclothes policeman was sitting in the fourth seat, but next to his chair, mine was the best.

Malenkov is a fat man, but he's one of those fat men who move with a certain grace. He's light on his feet and he walks with a quick, sure stride. He probably would have made a good running guard.

He has long black hair that he parts on one side. Dark, intelligent eyes, if you can say eyes are intelligent. A triple chin and he wears the traditional party khaki jacket, long khaki trousers and usually black shoes.

He knows what to do with his hands and this doesn't include sticking them in his trouser pockets. His voice is firm and extremely clear. His delivery is that of a practiced orator. He looks at his audience when he speaks.

He seems sure of himself. He handled himself very well at this, his first public appearance after becoming premier. He paid not the slightest bit of attention to Beria, Molotov, Bulganin, Khrushchev or anyone else. He was in charge.

This was the speech in which he said there were no troublesome issues that could not be solved by peaceful means, including those with the United States.

Few foreigners have had conversations with Malenkov. I have two notations from men who sat beside him in Kremlin banquets.

Note No. 1: "He didn't talk very much and when I told him a joke he managed a faint smile. He seemed preoccupied. He volunteered no remark to me. He had a certain poise. However, an unpleasant character, I'd say."

No. 2: "He seemed interested in his food more than he was interested in me as a dinner partner. But talking through a translator, he did appear to be intelligent, though reticent. When I made some remark about the weather he said he was never very conscious of the weather. All in all, not the kind of a fellow with whom to take a long trip on a tandem bicycle."

At 52, he is one of the youngest of the Communist leaders. And, of course, he's playing for time. He is consolidating his position, or trying to. Does he have time enough? I believe so. And I believe that Malenkov, more than any single man, is running Russia.

A mountain range comparable to the San Bernardino chain in California has been discovered under the Atlantic.

Terms of Blake's new contract were not disclosed by Miss Steen. The president of the school board, Dr. Harry Hosafross, could not be reached for questioning.

Why Worry?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Do you worry yourself sick trying to reach a final solution to your problems?

Well, you can't. So why not save your time, health and strength by quit trying to?

Most people in this world fret themselves into misery because they think there is a complete answer to every problem. But there isn't. The nature of problems in this world is that they breed each other. You exit from one problem only to find yourself at the entrance of another.

My definition of a grownup is a human being who deals with problems as he does with cutting grass. Just as he doesn't foam at the mouth and wildly grab his lawnmower when the first spear of green rears up in his front yard in the spring, neither does he get too excited about the onset of other problems.

Actually, few problems that wreck people's nerves are worth meeting more than halfway. And many others cannot be completely solved, because they merge into another problem.

For example:

When you are a child you yearn for the time when you will be big enough to whip the bully down the street. But later in life he comes to you in need—and how can you spare the dough he wants to borrow?

In youth a fellow could have such a good time if he only could afford to. By the time he can afford to he isn't sure what a good time is.

A girl reconciles herself to marrying a man she doesn't love on the grounds that, after all, he does have character. Then she discovers he doesn't really have character. He just is a character.

A boy marries a girl only to escape his silent loneliness—and finds out he is still lonely, but with sound effects.

A young couple decide to have children who will provide for them in their old age, and end up by baby sitting their grandchildren—and paying the milk bill, too.

You figure it is silly to spend all your paycheck. But as soon as you get a bank account, the value of money starts to fall.

At 25 you can't afford the cost of a haircut. At 50 any honest barber shouldn't charge more than half-price to trim the hair you have left.

If you have a kid, the neighbor on one side of you says you are ruining the boy through lack of discipline. But if you spank him, the neighbor on the other side calls the cops.

You give up smoking because the doctor tells you it can be bad for your heart. Then you eat so much you gain 25 pounds, and the same doctor says that's bad for your heart, too.

So you starve yourself slim, and this time the doctor says you got low blood pressure. You brood and brood, and when you come back the doctor says, "Now you got high blood pressure." Can you win? Nope. You're so nervous you start smoking again.

You take up color photography to relax. Then you find that only a man of inherited wealth can support both a wife and a stable of cameras.

Some older men then turn to wine, women and song. But the wine annoys their liver, any woman they like only thinks them annoying, and what does that leave them to sing but the blues?

Or take the ambitious man or woman. At 30 they are too disturbed because they aren't sure where they are going. At 65 they are even more disturbed because they have found out.

So it goes, from problem to problem. Yet there is only one real problem in life—and that's how to get the most out of it.

The only sensible rule for dealing with problems along the way is to think them through—and never solve a small one by trading it for a bigger one. It is foolish to have to yearn at the end because you have wasted your years by measuring your worries from a tumbler and your joys from an eyedropper.

BETTER THAN BEER?
With an open bottle and an open mind you can answer that question tonight!
At Carling's we brew both beer and ale—and each is mighty popular. But more and more people are telling us Carling's Red Cap Ale gives them more pleasure than any beer they ever tasted. They say it's light and dry as the smoothest beer, yet with that extra flavor—that "heart" which only a fine ale can provide. They call it the "light-hearted" ale.
Tonight, why not try it yourself? See whether you are one of those who find Carling's Red Cap Ale tastes even better than beer!

Man Accused Of Firing Gun At Wife Jailed

Says Gun Went Off In Scuffle, Denies He Meant To Shoot Her

A Marion man who allegedly fired a 38-caliber pistol at his wife during a family argument was sentenced to six months in the Columbus workhouse and fined $300 and costs in Municipal Court today when he pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Dennis Eugene Collins, 32, of 349 Davids St. was arrested at 3:13 a.m. Thursday and held on an open charge for investigation after an unidentified neighbor called police and reported hearing shots fired in the vicinity of 349 Davids St.

In their investigation, Patrolmen Leo Harvey, William Drollinger, Charles Ferguson, and Wayne Shepard found a 38 caliber pistol hidden under the seat of Collins' car.

When Mrs. Collins failed to file any other charges aginst her husband, police filed the concealed weapon charge.

In testimony in Municipal Court today, City Solicitor George Piacentino as acting city prosecutor said Mrs. Collins told him that her husband and she had a quarrel which ended in his firing the gun at her. She said that the quarrel was over whether or not she should return to Kentucky, Piacentino said.

She said her husband asked her where his gun was and she got it from a dresser and started to take the cartridges from the chamber. She got all but one of the shells out of the gun before he grabbed it from her, pointed it at her and two young children and started pulling the trigger.

There were no shells in the first two chambers, but the gun fired on the third trigger pull and the slug just missed her head, she told Piacentino.

Collins denied his wife's story in Court today and claimed that the gun went off accidentally while he and Mrs. Collins were wrestling over it. He said he thought she had taken all the bullets from it. Asked by Municipal Court Judge W. Dexter Hazen why he was wrestling with his wife over an empty gun he said he wanted it to take to a brother in Detroit.

Judge Hazen then asked him if he wanted to change his plea and he replied he would plead guilty to the concealed weapon charge but again denied pointing and firing the gun at his wife.

He was confined to the Marion County Jail pending his transfer to the workhouse.

Galion Boy

p.m. On learning that neighborhood children had been playing in the Bender field, police went there immediately and began probing for deep holes there which Bender had dug as recepticles for stones he was removing from his field.

The boy's body was found in the fourth and deepest hole, which was estimated to be about ten feet long and four or five feet wide. High grass in the field partially concealed the holes. Firemen were called to pump out water in the hole and aid in recovering the body.

The boy was born in Galion on May 21, 1949, the son of Francis and Wilma Tracht Cotton.

Surviving in addition to his parents are two sisters, Mrs. Eugene Dyer of Galion and Kathryn Cotton at home; two brothers, Joel W. and Francis Jr., at home; the maternal grandfather, Elmer Tracht of Galion; and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Fern Cotton of Galion. A brother, John preceded him in death.

Private funeral services will be held Saturday at 9 a.m. in the Snyder Funeral Home here with the Rev. B. Stephen Topalian, rector of Grace Episcopal Church officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. today.

Police Arrest Three On Traffic Charges

Three traffic arrests were reported today by police.

J. S. Thacker, 28, of the Union Depot Hotel was charged with failure to obey signals of a railroad crossing watchman on Kenton Ave. at 1:10 p.m. yesterday. He was cited to appear in Municipal Court Monday.

Two motorists were fined $25 and costs in Municipal Court today when they pleaded guilty to charges of failure to yield the right of way. They were Don F. Lumberson, 18, of near Harpster, arrested at 2:44 p.m. yesterday at Main and Center Sts., and Joseph G. Mowery, 24, of Richwood, arrested at 11:14 last night on S. Prospect St. Both made left turns in the path of oncoming traffic, police said.

KILLED IN CRASH

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Edward King, 66, Waynesville, Rt. 2, farmer, was killed last night when struck by an automobile on Ohio 48 near Lebanon.

Funeral Service Set Saturday for Accident Victim

Funeral services for James Lawrence Mulvane, 34, auto mechanic of near Iberia who was killed instantly when he drove his car into the path of an Erie passenger train southwest of Galion Wednesday afternoon, will be held at the Craven Funeral Home in Mt. Gilead at 2 p.m. Saturday.

J. L. Mulvane

The Rev. William R. Blackwell of Edison Methodist Church will officiate and burial will be in Iberia Cemetery. Friends may call at the family residence after noon today until noon Saturday.

He was returning from Galion to his home on the old Iberia-Mt. Gilead Road south of Iberia in Morrow County when he drove in front of an eastbound Erie passenger train. Apparently he was unaware of the train's approach.

Mulvane died instantly of a crushed skull.

He is survived by his wife, Betty, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mulvane; two daughters, Susie Jane and Clara Ellen, at home; two sisters, Mrs. Chester Benner and Mrs. James Weaver, both of Marion; two brothers, Willie and Quenton Mulvane, both of Marion; a sister, Mrs. William Everly of Prospect; four brothers, Gerald of Aberdeen, Wash., Kenneth of the U. S. Navy, Allen, of the U. S. Army, and Jerry at home.

License Suspended After Guilty Plea In Traffic Charge

Richard Lewis Putney, 29, of 756 Sheridan Rd. was fined $100 and costs and his driver's license was suspended for three years when he pleaded guilty to a hit-skip driving charge today in Marion Municipal Court.

Putney was arrested at the police station at 12:09 p.m. Thursday in connection with a police investigation of report of a hit-skip accident made to them at 7:13 a.m. Wednesday.

W. H. Iler called police and told them the front of his grocery store at the corner of Davids St. and Bellefontaine Ave. was damaged sometime during the night by something hitting it. Investigation by police disclosed the front of the store, a tree, and a mailbox on the corner were damaged and pieces from an automobile were found at the scene. They also learned the accident occurred between 3 and 4 a.m.

When Putney went to the police station yesterday to report he was involved in a traffic accident the day before, police matched the pieces to damaged parts on his car and filed a charge of leaving the scene of an accident against him.

Indiana Telephone Walkout Spreads

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Walkouts of telephone workers spread to more Indiana cities today, including the key long distance boards in Indianapolis.

The stalemated wage dispute sent at least 5,000 of Indiana Bell Telephone Co.'s. 61,900 union employes off the job in 33 cities.

Bell sent in emergency shifts of non-striking employes to handle calls, helped by recordings that told impatient callers there would be some delays.

Dial equipment kept local calls going normally in the larger cities. Toll calls only were affected by new walkouts today in Indianapolis, Anderson and Jeffersonville.

Some 1,900 traffic, plant and accounting workers in Indianapolis walked out early this morning, and pickets began parading in front of the large downtown headquarters building.

There were no negotiation sessions scheduled for today, but both sides indicated willingness to talk.

Mrs. Mae Mann, Indiana director of the CIO Communications Worker of America, blamed the "spontaneous" work stoppages on restiveness by employes who object to what she called stalling tactics used by the company in wage negotiations.

FINED ON HEALTH CHARGE

Leslie Gear, 48, of 523 Decatur St. was fined $15 and costs in Marion Municipal Court today when he pleaded guilty to a charge of allewing garbage and rubbish to accumulate at a residence unlawfully. He was arrested at 9:52 a.m. today at the police station. Police said they received complaints from neighbors and have warned Gear to dispose of the refuse several times before.

Stevenson Man In

New Democratic Boss Takes Over in Chicago

By RUSSELL LANE

CHICAGO (AP)—The political futures of Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) may have been greatly affected this week by a quiet change of Democratic party bosses in Chicago.

The election of a "youngster", 51-year-old Richard J. Daley, as chairman of the party's Cook County Central Committee, puts a close friend and protege of former Gov. Stevenson at the helm.

Daley's only opposition—which faded before Tuesday's election—was from a faction closely associated with the "old" Cook County organization, once known as the Kelly-Nash machine.

Withdrawing from the contest for party leadership at the 11th hour was James J. (Big Jim) McDermott, a one-time member of the Kelly-Nash high council.

Daley, now Cook County clerk, served as state revenue director under the 1952 Democratic presidential candidate.

"I hope sincerely that Adlai Stevenson will stay in public life and permit his name to be used in the 1956 national convention," Daley told a newsman today.

He also said he will give his full support as chairman of the county committee to Sen. Douglas whom he expects to be a candidate for re-election next year.

Leadership of the Cook County organization might have gone to a faction which has never been thoroughly sold on either Stevenson or Douglas.

During the days before the leadership change, several committeemen let it be known they favored a return to dyed-in-the-wool organization men for candidates. There were hints that a better senatorial candidate than Douglas might be found, and that Stevenson might best be forgotten.

The crisis appeared about five weeks ago when ailing Committee Chairman Joseph L. Gill made it clear he was quitting the job.

Plans of Gill and other committee officials to install Daley at the time of Gill's resignation two weeks ago were blocked by Thomas D. Nash, 19th Ward committeeman, and Clarence Wagner, committeeman and alderman of the 14th Ward. Nash was a cousin of the late Boss Patrick A. Nash, and Wagner was easily the City Council's most powerful figure as chairman of the finance committee and holder of the city's purse strings.

Nash and Wagner said they wanted the county chairmanship to go to McDermott, a Superior Court judge.

Alderman Wagner was killed in an automobile mishap near International Falls, Minn., July 10—a few days after Gill's resignation.

Uncertainties resulting from the death of Wagner cut McDermott's backing for the chairmanship, and Monday, just before Wagner's successor on the committee was to be named, the judge withdrew from the race.

Ike Appoints Commission To Study Govt.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, today appointed former President Herbert Hoover and James A. Farley, former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, public representatives on a new commission on government reorganization.

Eisenhower named Atty. Gen. Brownell and Arthur S. Flemming, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, representatives of the government's executive branch.

Under the law creating the commission, eight additional members will be designated by Congress. Vice President Nixon and House Speaker Martin each will designate 4 members—2 from the Senate, 2 from the House and 4 from private life.

Congress members said earlier this week they looked for Hoover to serve as chairman.

The new commission will have considerably broader authority than the old Hoover commission on government reorganization had. The former president headed that unit from the time it was set up in 1947 until it completed its work in 1949.

Toddler Found Before He's Reported Missing

A Marion toddler who took a stroll early yesterday morning was found before he was reported lost.

At 9:40 a.m. Thursday, Mrs. Walter Drake of 564 Darius St. called police and said she had found a baby boy wandering along the C& O Railroad tracks near her home about an hour previous to that time.

Police began an investigation and while still working on it received a call from Mrs. William Southworth of 428 Park Blvd. who said her 18-month-old son was missing from the back yard of their home.

Police said the toddler evidently started walking toward the rear of the yard and kept on going across the railroad tracks until Mrs. Drake found him. Darius St. is almost directly west of the Southworth residence.

Man Charged With Stabbing Held Sane

Virgil Ray Augustus, 45, of 688 Hocking St., charged with fatally stabbing a Marion woman on May 13, was returned yesterday to the Marion County jail from the Lima State Hospital where he was declared sane after a 30-day observation period.

Next step is for Augustus to enter a plea to the charge of second degree murder on which he was indicted by the grand jury. His court - appointed attorney is Carter M. Patton.

New Trial Is Denied Airline

CLEVELAND (AP)—Federal Judge Emerich B. Freed has refused Northwest Airlines' request for a new trial of its $725,000 damage suit against the Glenn L. Martin Co.

In the suit, Northwest contended a defective wing on a plane it bought from Martin was responsible for the crash of a Northwest plane that claimed 36 lives in 1948 near Winona, Minn. A jury decided in favor of Martin, and awarded no damages.

Kim Il Sung Believed Breaking With Russia

TOKYO (AP)—Korean sources indicated today Marshal Kim Il Sung, the fat boss of Red Korea, is swinging away from Russia and toward closer ties with Red China—even as contradictory reports said Kim himself had been purged.

There was no way of checking the rumors, but it appeared that political unrest gripped North Korea.

Kim reportedly has been turning out Korean Reds who lean toward Russia and boosting party members who put Communist China first.

Highway Department Reorganization Vetoed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche yesterday vetoed a bill to reorganize the state highway department. He said he vetoed it because:

1. It would remove a requirement the highway director be a licensed professional engineer, setting up separate divisions to be headed by engineers under the direction of a non-professional administrator.

2. It would fail to place the 12 highway division engineers under civil service.

The Legislature meets a week from today to study the veto.

NEVADA LUTHERAN SERVICE

"The Determination of Your Destiny" will be the subject of a sermon by the Rev. K. R. Roberts, pastor of the Nevada Lutheran Church in the morning worship service Sunday at 10:30. In the afternoon, the Fellowship Class will hold a swimming party and picnic at Harrison-Smith Park in Upper Sandusky.

NAMED 'MISS CLEVELAND'

CLEVELAND (AP) — Miss Nanci Hall, a 20-year-old brunette office worker, will represent Cleveland at the "Miss Ohio" contest in Mentor next Thursday.

Miss Hall was picked "Miss Cleveland" last night over 15 other contestants.

Boys Murder Ohio Oilman

Teenage Brothers Steal His Car, Money

LOGAN, O. (AP) — Two teenage brothers are charged with taking turns shooting into the body of Ivor Dawley, 60-year-old oilman.

After killing him, 15-year-old George and 13-year-old Joseph Giffin, stole $20 and his car, Assistant Prosecutor Philip Henderson said. Henderson said the boys started on their rampage when angered by their stepfather, George Sanders. They came upon Dawley at his oil pumping rig.

The Giffins signed a statement telling how they then shot down the New Straitsville resident, taking turns with a rifle, police reported.

Henderson said the last slub was fired into Dawley's brain at point-blank range.

—:—

Victim's Daughter Is Wife of Marion Native

A daughter of Ivor Dawley, victim of the shooting, is married to a former Marion resident. She is Doris Volk, wife of Robert Volk. They now make their home in Salem, N. J.

Ivor Dawley was born in Hocking County on July 12, 1899 to R. L. and Dora E. Cardwell Dawley. He had spent most of his life in New Straitsville where he was employed in the oil fields by four companies, the CCC Oil Co., the Cube Gas and Oil Co., the Big Ten Oil Co., and the B and B Oil Co.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Volk, his wife, Mae, three sons, Donald of Long Valley, N. J., Neil and Peter of Logan; two brothers, Everett of Logan and Stanley of Spencer; and two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Mundy of Carbon Hill, O., and Mrs. Bessie Martin of Smithfield.

Funeral services will be at the Heinlein Funeral Home in Logan on Sunday at 2 p.m. Friends may call at the funeral home after 9 a.m. Saturday. Rev. Walter Hillis of New Straitsville will conduct the services Sunday. Burial will be in New Straitsville.

agressors, to give me assurances that the United States would either jointly resume the fighting with us (if the political conference failed) or if this cannot be done, that it would back our efforts with moral and material support in addition to the proposed economic aid."

"I am sure he is doing all he can," Rhee said, "but while a truce seems imminent, I have had no word on this crucial matter."

Rhee flew to U. S. 1st Corps headquarters later in the day to present the corps with the ROK presidential unit citation.

Last month Rhee threatened to wreck an armistice when he ordered the release of about 27,000 anti-Communist North Korean war prisoners. And earlier this week he warned that South Korea will follow its own course of action unless the Chinese Reds agree within six months after an armistice is signed to evacuate Norty Korea.

Friday Rhee said he is "still waiting hopefully for word" from Washington that the agreement he reached with Robertson in Seoul last month has "not been sacrificed to the demands of the Communist enemy."

Gas Blast Wrecks Home, Two Critical

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—An Ashtabula couple was in critical condition in General Hospital today after a gas explosion virtually blew their house apart last night.

Hospital attaches said both Chauncey Beebe, 52, and his wife, Murine, 46, were on the danger list with burns.

Beebe was blown far out in his front yard when the blast ripped the two - story frame dwelling. Neighbors rescued Mrs. Beebe as she stood, with her clothes burning, at a window she had been trying to open.

Firemen said a road grader accidentally cut a gas line near the House, causing the building to fill with fumes. Returning home from an errand, the Beebes noticed the fumes and were trying to air the house when the gas exploded.

Woman Struck By Auto, But Escapes Injury

An unidentified woman pedestrian was knocked down by an automobile but apparently was not injured in one of two traffic accidents reported today by Marion police.

The pedestrian was struck at Prospect and W. Center Sts. at 1 p.m. yesterday by a car driven east on W. Center St. by Mrs. Rose Davis of Delaware.

Witnesses told police the woman pedestrian was walking north across W. Center St. against the traffic light and Mrs. Davis was driving through the intersection on a green light. The collision knocked the woman down and rolled her over a couple times, the witnesses reported. Mrs. Davis told the woman she was going to call the police and the woman walked off without leaving her name and address.

The rear end of a car driven by David L. Fogle, 42, of 927 Sheridan Rd. was damaged when struck by a truck driven by Frank I. Frouten Jr., 43, of Lasalle, Mich. at Main and Center Sts. at 5:09 p.m. yesterday. Police reported both were headed north on Main St. and Fogle was making a left turn onto W. Center St. when the truck struck the rear of his car.

Vandals

was the driver in the Sunday escapade until further order of the court. Before suspending the license, Judge Ruzzo inquired if the youth used the car in his work. When the boy replied he used the car to drive to work, the judge told him "you're to walk for awhile."

In the Juvenile Court hearing, the one 13-year old boy and the five 16-year old boys admitted overturning a load of about 25 bales of straw, damaging a tractor belonging to the county and another tractor belonging to a farmer, upsetting two hay racks and a mowing machine, removing and damaging a tarpaulin covering a combine machine, tearing down a farmer's gate, breaking two street lights in Cardington, and damaging road markers and stop signs.

Damage to farm property amounted to $81 and damage to the road markers and signs came to $39. No estimate was available yesterday on damage to the mail boxes.

Tracked Down by Sheriff

Several phone calls from farmers on Marion County Route 156 in the southeastern park of the county to the Marion County sheriff's office launched the investigation leading up to rounding up the boys.

Working with the sheriff's office in the investigation was R. C. Alexander, U. S. postoffice inspector stationed in Marion.

In statements made to the sheriff's office and the postal inspector, the boys said they got together in Waldo early Sunday evening with the intention of going to the auto races. When a heavy rain fell, the boys thought the races would be called off, so went to the movie in Marion instead.

None of the boys could say whose idea the vandalism tour was, saying only that they "started out to have some fun."

In imposing the stiff penalties, Judge Ruzzo told the boys that "by your own admission, you are delinquent as charged."

Commenting on their inability to offer explanations for their behavior, the judge said, "You certainly went berserk, and you should be taught right now to perceive and respect the rights and privileges of others, and that getting in trouble is an expensive business."

Noting that none of the boys had been in trouble before and that they came from good homes, Judge Ruzzo commented that reasons for their actions "were difficult to find."

He warned the boys that if they failed to comply with his detention orders, they would be subject to further charges and would be held in contempt of court. With the exception of working hours, the boys must remain in their homes for the 30-day period.

Goods and Accessories Stolen From 3 Autos

A flurry of car pilferings in Marion with a total of some $30 worth of various items stolen was reported today by police.

First report of the pilferings came to police at 9 a.m. yesterday when F. G. Wilton of Skokie, Ill., reported the right front window of his car had been broken out and slacks, shirts, and a pair of sun glasses worth a total of $15 stolen. The car was parked at the rear of Hotel Harding.

At 10:29 a.m. yesterday, Mrs. William Amrine of the Green Owl Cabins on N. Main St. reported someone stole two side mirrors from her car parked in the court yard of the tourist camp during the night. The two mirrors were valued at about $4.

At 12:05 p.m. yesterday, Clifford Young of 311 E. Fairground St. called police and said that someone stole a defroster fan from the inside of his car during the night. He said the car was parked near his residence.

Kiwanis Club Hears Talk by New Minister

Epworth Pastor Gives Address on First Views Of Marion, Citizens

The Kiwanis Club held its regular meeting Thursday at noon at Hotel Harding. Speaker for the meeting was the newly appointed pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, the Rev. Walter C. Eyster.

The topic of his speech was his view of Marion and its citizens. He pointed out that the great advantage of service clubs is getting away from regular routines and the opportunities for discussion of mutual problems.

He said in a free society people realize there is room for differences of opinions and there is a two-fold responsibility before the community. He gave this as the need for relief and for reconstruction. He added the best is yet to come. Even though things may look good to us now, they will be better in the future, he said.

Positive thinking can have a great influence and is necessary for the ordinary person, he said. He gave as an example the case of an athlete in his school who was put into bed by statements of his classmates that he was not looking well. After five persons told him the same thing, the athlete went to bed even though he was in perfect health.

He closed by telling Kiwanis members what a person is, is reflected back to him. He used the example of a man shouting against a blank wall and having the sound of his voice thrown back at him.

Al Kette acting as chairman, introduced the speaker.

Several members of the Mt. Gilead Kiwanis Club were guests. They were Sheridan Walker, C. C. Dye, C. S. Gladden, C. S. Jackson, Richard Claar, W. N. Woodward, F. W. Dalrymple, Charles Birdsong, C. K. Wones, John Mathews, L. L. Garver, David Sken and Dr. John Wood.

John Head, new manager of the J. C. Penney Co., was introduced as a new member of the club.

Past Lt. Gov. A. F. Busch was the president pro-tem at Thursday's meeting.

motorcycle, Lewis Long, 23, of near Marion, who suffered a back injury, and the passenger, Thomas Crisswell, 18, of near Marion, a fractured pelvis and liver injury. They were rushed to the hospital by a Gehm ambulance from Prospect.

Driver of the car involved was Richard Adams, 19, of 607 Ballentine Ave., who escaped uninjured.

Patrolmen said the Adams car drove into the ditch to avoid hitting a car ahead of it, which had slowed down to make a left turn. The motorcycle followed suit, patrolmen said.

Light damage to the right side of the car and to the front of the motorcycle was reported.

Building Recently Reconstructed

Dedication Set for Wyandot Methodist Church

District Superintendent Will Speak at Sunday Afternoon Service

A service of dedication of the newly reconstructed Methodist Church at Wyandot, a community three miles north of Brush Ridge on Route 294, will be held Sunday. It will mark 125 years of Methodist work in the community.

The dedication program, which is scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m., will be the highlight of the day. In the morning, the Sunday school hour at 10 o'clock will be followed by the morning worship when the guest speaker will be Dr. Rollin H. Walker of Delaware, O., a former professor of the Bible at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Delivering the sermon for the afternoon service will be Dr. Harold F. Kellogg of Lima, district superintendent. He also will conduct the service of dedication with the congregation joining in with responses.

A feature of the afternoon program will be the introduction of members of the building committee, Mrs. Charles Cover, Lynn Lepley, Miss Ethel Davidson; the architect and designer, Robert Tschantz; the builder and contractor, Walter Turner; and the decorators, Robert Starner and Earl Flock.

Also, special visitors, visiting pastors and former pastors, and visiting laymen, along with Dr. Walker, will be introduced. Music will include hymns by the congregation and an anthem by the choir.

INTERIOR OF THE NEWLY RECONSTRUCTED Wyandot Methodist Church, which will be dedicated Sunday in a special service, is shown above. The church is located three miles north of Brush Ridge on Route 294. In the inset, in the upper right hand corner is pictured an outside view of the church.

Once an Indian Village

A unique history has been recorded concerning the village of Wyandot. Dating back to the 1820's, it is conceded to be the first white village settled in Wyandot County. The village itself was originally an Indian village, and in the year 1782 it was recorded as one of the Christian Indian settlements.

When Colonel William Crawford led his expedition to Ohio against the Wyandot Indians in June 1783, they came first to the Wyandot Indian village hoping to get certain news about the uprising of the Indians in the Sandusky region, not alone about the Wyandots, but also the Delawares, the Mingoes, the Shawnees and other neighboring tribes.

When they came to the Wyandot village on that June morning in 1782 the village had been burned to the ground. The Crawford expedition proceeded to a spot some three miles southeast of where Upper Sandusky now is located and fought a hard battle with several thousand Indians who were gathering at that place. That was the first knowledge the expedition had of the overwhelming force of Indians concentrated in this region by the aid of the British.

The Crawford expedition forthwith decided to withdraw back to Pennsylvania, the way they came. They passed through the little Wyandot village which lay in cinders and took the trail by way of Bucyrus on what is now Route 12 and camped some three miles east of that place. The next day the Battle of the Olentangy was fought near the spot where the monument now stands east of Bucyrus.

Leader Captured

Against an overwhelming force of Delawares, Mingoes, and Shawnees who had reinforced the Wyandots, the Western Pennsylvanians with their high power rifles and good marksmanship proved to be too much for this overwhelming force of Indians. But during the night, leaving their campfires burning to deceive the Indians, the Crawford troops of about 450 men retreated some 30 or 40 miles east and next morning made their safe way on toward Pennsylvania. Col. Crawford, finding his nephew name-sake missing, came back as far as Bucyrus seeking him. The nephew caught up and joined the retreating army the next day, but Col. Crawford was captured on the east side of what is now Bucyrus and the following day was burned at the stake by the Wyandots at a place some miles north of Upper Sandusky.

Thus, the village of Wyandot has some recordings in American history and the claiming of the great northwest territory against the British.

The Methodist Church was first started under the supervision of the Rev. J. B. Findley, the great pioneer Methodist preacher of central Ohio. The old Methodist building put up some years before 1850 was on the west side of the road from the present church and has been claimed by the township trustees for years as a toolshed. The present Methodist Church on the east side of the road was built in 1858 by the Presbyterians. When their work lapsed in that community, they sold their church to the Methodists in 1884 for the sum of $300. For 69 years without a break, the Methodists have held Sunday School and church worship services there. Being on the dividing line of two Ohio Conferences, it has been sometimes in North-East Ohio and sometimes in the Ohio conference, as it is at the present time.

Room Divided

In the reconstruction the large single room of the present church has been divided and the north side made into a sanctuary for worship while the south half has been made into a Sunday school room with possibilities for a social and recreational hall or a dining room.

The church built in 1858 was a New England type of Colonial style with straight seating, plain white, with mahogany or walnut trimming. The chancel was severe in its simplicity. When first built it contained enough pews to seat 250 persons. The church was rectangular with two aisles leading from the back to the front.

The new sanctuary is colonial in style, center aisle with straight pews reaching to either side, painted pure white with a walnut trimming. There is the divided chancel, choir seats facing each other on either side, and an altar with rich red velvet curtain as background with cross and candle sticks, and all in plain view from center aisle when entering the sanctuary.

The Sunday school room, by means of movable partitions, can be made into four or five individual class rooms. At the rear of the Sunday school room there is planned a sizeable kitchen for all social work of the church.

DISMISSES SUIT

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Common Pleas Judge Joseph M. Clifford has dismissed a $3,100,000 damage suit filed by the Neil House Hotel against the striking AFL Hotel, Bartenders International Union. The hotel charged the union with vandalism and violence since it struck Nov. 13, 1951. The judge also refused to grant the hotel a restraining order banning further picketing.

Maryland Rain Worth $25 Million to Farmers

BALTIMORE (AP) — Agricultural experts figure a soaking rain that fell Wednesday night and early Thursday was worth about 25 million dollars to Maryland corn farmers.

Spokesmen at the University of Maryland College of Agriculture said about half of the 469,000 acres of corn, worth from $75 to $125 an acre, would have been lost if the rain hadn't come along to break up a month-long drought.

Summer Coolers are easy to make with Borden's Sherbets try these for pleasant refreshment!

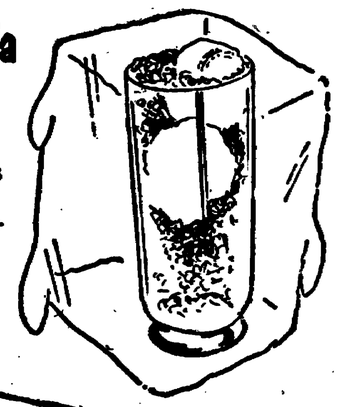
Summer Soda

Put two tablespoons of strawberry or raspberry fruit syrup into a tall cold glass. Add a generous quantity of Borden's Orange, Lemon, or Lemon-Raspberry Sherbet. Fill with chilled sparkling water. Wonderful!



Sherbet Frosted

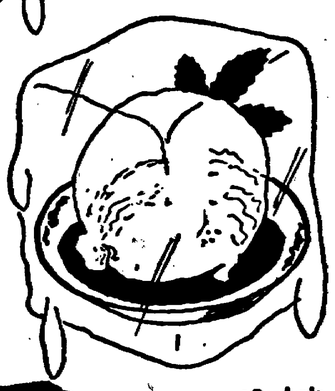
Put a half-cup of ice cold milk into a mixing bowl. Add 4 heaping tablespoons of Borden's fruit Sherbet, plus a tablespoon of fruit or simple syrup, or sugar. Put on mixer, or use hand mixer until fully blended. Spoon into a thin cold glass. Top with a sliver of Sherbet.

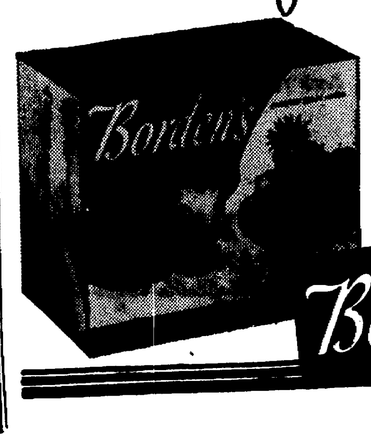
Sherbet Parfait

Use 2 or 3 different fruit syrups. Alternate layers of syrup and Borden's fruit Sherbet, packing Sherbet tightly to keep layers distinct! Fine!

Julep Ball

Put two tablespoons of mint (or lemon) sauce into a small dish. Add a large rounded serving of Borden's Sherbet. Garnish with mint leaves. Delightfully unusual!





You can get Borden's Sherbets at your favorite Borden's Ice Cream Dealer!
In pints and half-gallons and at the fountain!

Six Marion Men To Attend State D.A.V. Convention

Six delegates and alternates from the Marion chapter of the Disabled American Veterans plan to attend the state organization's 22nd annual convention in Columbus, July 31, Aug. 1 and 2.

Attending from Marion will be Commander Lewis Craig, Ralph Westcott, William Kehrwecker, and Joe Baalson as delegates, and Emmett Huntsman and James Thomas as alternates.

The convention this year is expected to draw the largest registry in the history of a state DAV convention. The Ohio DAV has reached a new all-time high state membership and leads all states for the 16th consecutive year.

Main features of the convention will be the annual election of Ohio officers on Sunday, the Chapter Service Officers' School on Friday and the annual convention banquet at the Deshler-Hilton Hotel on Saturday night. The service officers' school will be conducted by national service officers of the DAV and officials of the Veterans Administration.

Gov. Frank Lausche, other state officials, the managers of several offices of the Veterans Administration and federal government hospitals in the state and representatives of other veterans organizations are scheduled to address the group.

Members of the DAV Auxiliary will meet concurrently in state convention.

The DAV, organized in 1920, is composed exclusively of those who were wounded, gassed or disabled as a direct result of war service.

The national convention will be held in Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 23-29.

Champ Blood Donor Frets at Restrictions

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The Tulsa County Red Cross blood center's champion donor is William I. Nichols, 50, whose goal is a pint for every year of his life.

He has given the center 21 pints after making 15 blood donor trips to hospitals before the center was established.

Nichols' complaint is they won't let him give blood after he's 60. "Shucks," he said, "a normal boy fighting his way through school would lose more blood than donors are permitted to give."

The dipper bird can endure cold 50 degrees below zero.

Bible Words to Live by

PSALM 34:6. "This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles."

* * *

My attachment for this verse dates from a night many years ago when, as a boy of fifteen, I entered for the first time the meeting hall of the Rescue Mission in my home town, Altoona, Pennsylvania. On the wall was a cardboard motto bearing these words. Nearby was a group of "guests" waiting for the nightly service to begin. Their faces as well as their clothing and manners identified them as some of the world's anonymous who had passed through varying degrees of evil and misfortune, and were now finding warmth at least—perhaps also hope and salvation—in the fellowship and spirit of the mission.

The verse has stayed with me ever since, a sort of epitome of our common human need and of that essence of the Christian gospel—that God is forever there, seeking His wayward or troubled children, ready always to meet them where they are and lift them up toward where He is.

$350,000 Lawsuit Settled for $24,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A lawsuit in which it was alleged a bus wheel rested eight minutes on a 9-year-old girl's foot was settled yesterday for $24,000.

Mrs. Laura A. Pogue, widowed mother of Karen Pogue, had sued the Los Angeles Transit Lines for $350,000. The complaint said the bus struck the girl Oct. 13, 1951, and that the driver, Mrs. Forrestine G. Long, said company rules forbade her to move the bus until a company supervisor arrived.

Two of the child's toes had to be amputated.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Norman E. Davies, 36, was electrocuted yesterday while repairing an air conditioning unit in a suburban bank.

Tot, 3, Hitchhikes Ride on Truck Bumper

LITTLETON, Colo. (AP)—Red light flashing and siren screaming, State Patrolman Kenneth Thomason chased a pickup truck for two miles south of here last night. When he finally halted Mrs. Albert Lynes, the Lynes' 3-year-old daughter, Mary Margaret, climbed from the front bumper of the truck and greeted her parents.

Thomason said the tot evidently had ridden on the front of the truck for 10 miles at speeds between 45 and 50 m.p.h. The parents thought the girl was home in bed.

Obituary of Jacob W. Schweinfurth

Funeral services for Jacob W. Schweinfurth, retired farmer, Waldo Township, Marion County, Ohio, were conducted at the Powell Funeral Home, Prospect, Ohio, 2:30 p.m. Saturday, July 18, 1953 with the Rev. William F. Kissell of the Waldo Reformed Church officiating.

Jacob W. Schweinfurth was born on June 25, 1868 in Pleasant Township, Marion County, Ohio, the son of Jacob Schweinfurth, a native of Germany and Mary Wells Schweinfurth, a native of Delaware County, Ohio.

On February 17, 1892, he was married to Clara Allmendinger, who passed away on April 7, 1901. To this union were born four children: Walter W., Mabel C., Harvey and Clifford L.—Mabel and Harvey preceded him in death.

On April 16, 1904, he was united in marriage to Miss Kate Augenstein of Waldo, Ohio. One daughter, Avonelle, was born to this union.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Kate Schweinfurth;; two sons: Walter W. of Marion, and Clifford L. of Chillicothe; and one daughter, Mrs. Robert C. (Avonelle) Schafer of Columbus; and three grandsons: Harold, Robert and Donald Schweinfurth, Marion.

Mr. Schweinfurth was the last of a family of eight children: Herman, John, Ferdinand, Laura, Jacob, George, Lyda and Arthur. Arthur passed away on July 1 of this year in Bakersfield, California.

Mr. Schweinfurth, who had been in failing health for a number of years, became seriously ill in January of this year at which time he suffered a partial stroke. However, he was not confined to his bed until three weeks ago. On Thursday, July 16 at 3:00 a.m. he passed away, after having just reached his 85th birthday on June 25 of this year.

Mr. Schweinfurth lived his entire life in Marion County as a farmer. He was a member of the Bethlehem M. E. Church and a charter member of Bethlehem Grange No. 1956.

A quartet consisting of Messrs. Oscar Kaelber, Earl Augenstein, Walter Bender, and Robert Rice with Mrs. Robert Rice, accompanist, from the Bethlehem Grange sang two beautiful numbers. Pallbearers were Messrs. Roy Grate, Wilfred Arnold, Harold Criswell, Coy Curren, Arthur Isler, and Carl Seiter.

Burial in the Prospect Cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to Dr. C. W. Holcomb for his fine professional services; to our many friends, relatives, and neighbors for their acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, and beautiful floral offerings during the recent loss of our husband and father, Jacob W. Schweinfurth; to the Rev. William F. Kissell for his comforting words, to the pallbearers and to the Bethlehem Grange Male Quartet and their accompanist.

Mrs. Jacob W. Schweinfurth,
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schweinfurth and family,
Clifford L. Schweinfurth,
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schafer.

Milwaukee Invades Brooklyn for Four-Game Series

Sweep by Bums Could Kill Braves' Flag Hopes

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

It takes a Brave team to invade Ebbets Field these days so Milwaukee opens a 4-game series in the home of the Brooklyn Dodgers tonight.

This is another of those "do or die" clashes that keep popping up all season. The Dodgers feel they've got the Braves on the ropes by now with a 5½ game lead and the season moving rapidly toward the two-thirds mark.

A 4-game Brooklyn sweep would pretty well write an unhappy ending to the first edition of Charlie Grimm's Milwaukee Fairy Tale. Although even a first division club probably will be welcome in the strike-bound brewery center which has gone hog wild over major league ball, a first year winner would have been mighty nice.

The Braves aren't through yet and they may be just the team to cool off the Dodgers who have won 10 of their last 11. Milwaukee is the only club in the league with a season's edge over the Dodgers in Brooklyn, having won three of the five games played there so far.

Both Brooklyn and the Braves were rained out yesterday so they'll go into tonight's game with a welcome day of rest. The Dodgers were supposed to play Chicago and Milwaukee was scheduled at Philadelphia. The rain also cut short the St. Louis Cardinals' series with the New York Giants. Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh 7-0 in the only National League game played.

The big noise in the American League was the collapse of the New York Yankees in Cleveland for the third straight game. This time the World Champions looked like real country bumpkins as they were swamped, 10-2.

The Chicago White Sox muffed their chance to close in on the Yanks when they bowed to Boston, 4-3. The White Sox trail by 4½ games.

Detroit's slumbering Tigers popped up with a 4-game winning streak, taking a pair from Washington 9-6 in 10 innings and 5-4. The victories moved the Tigers within half a game of the seventh place St. Louis Browns who lost to Philadelphia, 7-4, in 14 innings.

At Chicago, Hector (Skinny) Brown came back to haunt his old White Sox teammates with a 4-hitter for his seventh straight victory. He gave up two runs without a hit in the second inning when he walked three men. He then pitched hitless ball from the fourth until Jim Rivera hit a home run in the ninth.

Ray Boone, who says he likes it better with last place Detroit than he did with first division Cleveland hit a 3-run homer in the 10th inning for the Tigers' first game victory over Washington. Home runs by Jim Delsing and Bob Nieman, and a timely 2-run single by Gerry Priddy helped Ted Gray win his fifth game in the nightcap.

The Athletics solved Satch Paige's relief efforts for four hits and three runs in the 14th to win their marathon at St. Louis. Eddie Robinson brought home two of the tallies with a triple.

Redlegs Whip Pittsburgh on Eight-Hit Job

Perkowski Checks Pirate Hitters, Coasts To 7-0 Decision

NEW YORK (AP)—Harry Perkowski scattered eight hits yesterday and the Cincinnati Redlegs had little trouble defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-0.

Bud Podbielan was due to be the Redleg hurler against the New York Giants today. Alan Worthington, the Giants' senational rookie, was expected to oppose him.

The Rhinelanders lost little time yesterday in putting away the game. They knocked Murry Dickson out with a four-run first inning.

Singles by Bobby Adams and Gus Bell were followed by a walk to Ted Kluszewski, a two-run single by Jim Greengrass and a two-run triple by Willard Marshall.

In the fifth Rocky Bridges got his first home run of the season. Adams got a one-base blow and Bell beat out a bunt. Adams was thrown out at the plate on a double steal but Bell scored on Greengrass' double after Kluszewski had flied out.

The final tally was registered in the seventh after Bridges and Adams singled in succession. Bridges came home when pitcher Bob Hall threw one away trying to pick Adams of first.

Four Pittsburgh hurlers cooled off Kluszewski. They had to walk him a couple of times to do it, but big Ted went hitless.

TAKE UC POST

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Lowell Storm, line coach at Springfield High, resigned yesterday to become freshman line coach at the University of Cincinnati, from which he was graduated in 1950.

SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

During a recent visit to Columbus, the conversation naturally enough turned to the football fortunes of Ohio State next fall. Most of the bugs in that city will tell you Woody Hayes is readying a powerhouse.

The Buckeyes are favorites in Columbus to roll through the Big Ten and into the Rose Bowl. Some will tell you OSU will, or should be, the national champions.

John Borton, Buck quarterback, is being tabbed as the key man in the picture. The consensus seems to be that the new rule, preventing unlimited substitutions and forcing Borton to go both ways, will label him as All-American material.

SHORT

Borton has a wealth of experience both ways and could very easily live up to these advance rave notices. Two years ago he was recognized as one of the Big Ten's top linebackers. At that time, he was playing only on defense while Tony Curcillo handled the signal calling. Last year, Coach Hayes reversed the two. Borton took over as offensive quarterback and turned in several outstanding performances, both in throwing the ball and in directing the team. Curcillo became one of the conference's top defensive men.

The Alliance senior has the quarterbacking job all but sewed up. Main worry confronting the High Street coaches is the question of Dave Liggett, a pretty fair man in his own right. During the annual spring game, Liggett showed he could handle the football against varsity competition but with the subbing rule in effect he stands a chance of spending nearly 60 minutes sitting on the bench while Borton performs.

Liggett, while not as clever a ball handler as Borton, showed in that game he was a shade faster. Hayes may tinker with Liggett and a halfback post before the start of the season.

The new rule could also benefit Marion's Paul Ludwig. He has been used mainly on defense by Hayes but during his high school career was an offensive demon at Harding High School. Marion fans are hoping he isn't overlooked in the shuffle of Hayes' building project.

Notch 3-2 Win

American League Stars Squeeze By Nationals

By GARY SAMS

The American Leaguers nipped the National Leaguers 3-2 in their Little League All-Star clash at Lincoln Park Thursday night.

The winning margin was a two-run spurt in the fourth without benefit of a hit. John Nichols led off with a base on balls and Dave Kelly hit to the shortstop, whose throw to second was too late to force Nichols. A pair of passed balls brought Nichols in and Kelly scored as Ross Morbitt grounded out to the first baseman.

The winners had scored their first tally in the second frame on two hits, their only ones of the game.

Dale Walters led off the round by doubling to center and Chuck Lindsey singled to right. Walters came in when the pitcher uncorked a wild pitch and the catcher, after retrieving the ball, couldn't grip it to throw to the pitcher covering home.

The losers weren't able to score in the first although Larry Ballinger collected an automatic double past the left field fence and Steve Flesher followed with a single. But in the second, the losers came in with two runs on three safe blows.

Steve Jenkins led off with a single and advanced to second when Pete Griffith grounded out to first. Then Pat Giles tripled to the right field fence, driving in Jenkins, and Doug Bailey singled, bringing Giles home. The National Leaguers got their only other hit in the sixth when Howison beat out a bunt. This followed a walk to Gary Roberson and a hit batsman, Tom Pritchard, loading the bases but a run-down resulted in the second out and the next batter fanned, ending the game.

Walters started on the mound for the winning American Leaguers and was relieved by Lindsey in the third. Roger Bartz came on in the fifth and finished up. Lindsey was the winning pitcher.

For the Nationals, Giles was the starting pitcher. Joel Lenavitt took over pitching chores in the third and Steve Flesher followed in the fifth.

Twelve National Leaguers went down on strikeouts and four American Leaguers did the same. The winners had their three runs on only two hits, while the losers banged out six hits for their two runs.

Losers in Prelims Win Main Event

A three-man tag team composed of Dano O'Shocker, Danny O'Sullivan and Bobby Ford won the Thursday night feature at the armory over a team made up of the Dark Secret, Paul Orth and Lou LaPoski.

The teams were selected after three one-fall bouts. In the opening feature, the Dark Secret and O'Shocker wrestled to a 20-minute draw. LaPoski whipped O'Sullivan with a self-strangle hold in the second after 12 minutes and Orth won from Ford with a chopper after 10 minutes.

The first fall in the feature was won by O'Shocker when he pinned LaPoski after a drop kick in nine minutes. The second fall was won after seven minutes when Ford used a drop lick to pin Orth.

The University of Florida quarterback, Doug Dickey, completed 51.3 per cent of his forward passes in 1953.

Shovel, Depot Remain in Tie For Top Spot

Two Teams Set To Break Deadlock In Game Next Week

Marion Power Shovel and Engineer Depot came through with their fourth straight wins of the Industrial League No. 1 second round Thursday at Garfield Park to remain tied for first place and set the stage for the tie-breaking game next week on the Engineer Depot diamond.

With only three more games on the schedule for the season, next Thursday's contest could determine the championship of the league's second round. Game time has been set at 6:15 on the Depot diamond.

The Shovel's Dwight Wilcox and Jimmy Kunkle of the Erie A. A. hooked up in a pitcher's duel for six innings before an error in the top half of the seventh inning gave the Shovel two runs. Wilcox opened the seventh with a single. Wilcox was erased on a fielder's choice on Lindy Walter's grounder, but Fritz Walters laced a single into right center sending Lindy to third. Fritz went into second standing up on an attempt to get Lindy Walters at third, who found himself caught in a run-down after rounding the bag. A wild throw allowed both runners to score.

Marion Engineer Depot dumped the Cooler, 4-0, in the opener as Bud England blanked the losers on two hits. The winners broke the ice in the third frame when England singled and scored on a fielder's choice. The Depot added two tallies in the fifth on two hits and finished the scoring in the sixth with a single run. Johnson and Reid were the only Cooler hitters to collect hits while the winners reached Darnell for a total of six hits.

Osco rolled over General-Alloy, 19-2, in a five-inning game. The winners belted out 16 hits to rout the foe in only four innings of hitting. Osco collected 11 of its 19 runs in the fourth inning.

Marion Industries won its second straight with a 4-1 verdict over Huber. Bud Thorpe allowed the losers only one hit. Fats Millisor spoiled his bid for a no-hitter when he singled to open the second inning.

Bettors' Choice Wins at Hilliards

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Hazeldean Adam was a bettors' choice and a justifiable win at Hilliards Raceway last night.

With D. Butt in the sulky, the horse won both heats of the $1,000 Home Talent Stakes for three-year-olds.

Running on form, Hazeldean Adam took the third race in 2:12 1-5 and was only a fifth slower in the sixth.

General Gallon not only ran the fastest race of the night, but returned the best win price. The General took the $500 seventh classified Pace B in 2:08 1-5 and was good for $7.40 at the win window.

NOTICE—BRIDGE SALE

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Marion County Commissioners of Marion, Ohio, until 10:00 A.M. (E.S.T.) August 24, 1953 as follows:

For furnishing all materials and performing all labor for the construction of new concrete abutments, retaining wall, moving old bridge and stone to County yard and making channel changes as shown on plans and profile on file in the County Engineers Office.

Project located on County Road No. 123, Section "I" over Qu Qua Creek.

The foregoing being designated by the Board of Commissioners in their resolution adopted July 2, 1953.

Said improvement shall be done in accordance with Ohio State Highway Specifications for 1953, for concrete bridges and plans on file in the Marion County Engineers Office.

Quotations shall be submitted upon blanks furnished by the Marion County Engineer and shall not exceed the estimated cost of labor and material—total 9,785.90.

Sealed bids will be publicly opened on the above date, read and an award made at that or such time to which consideration of said bids may be duly adjourned as provided by law.

All bids shall be accompanied by either a deposit of money or a certified check on some solvent bank, in the amount of five per cent (5%) of the estimated cost of the improvement, made payable to the order of the Board of Marion County Commissioners as a guarantee that said bidder will sign the contract for the performance of the work and furnish bond. The bond will amount to one-half (½) of the estimated cost of the improvement, for the proper construction and completion of the contract as required by law.

The minimum wages to be paid all labor on this contract shall be in accordance with the schedule of prevailing wage rates in Marion County as ascertained and determined by the Department of Industrial Relations. in accordance with Section 17-3, 17-4, 17-4a, 17-5 and 17-5a of the General Code of Ohio.

Bids must be signed by all parties interested in the contract.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

By order of the board of Commissioners of Marion County, Ohio.

Superintendent of Mt. Gilead Schools Resigns From Post

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD — Resignation of O. H. Farrar as Superintendent of the Mt. Gilead Public Schools was received and Robert Blose, school principal, was hired to take Farrar's place at a special meeting of the Mt. Gilead Board of Education this week.

Farrar, superintendent for the past five years, resigned to accept a position as principal of the Willoughby schools, east of Cleveland. Farrar was given a three-year contract in the high school which has a total of over 1,000 students in the upper three grades. His contract begins August 15 and he and Mrs. Farrar plan to move as soon as they find housing there.

Blose will be employed as superintendent starting August 1.

Farrar did his undergraduate work at Ohio University and has attended graduate school at Ohio State University where he has been working on his Doctor's degree. He was principal at Mt. Gilead from 1939 to 1945 when he left to accept a position as principal at Defiance. He returned to Mt. Gilead in 1948 as superintendent to succeed Dwight Musselman.

Blose is a graduate of Ohio Northern University and received his Master's Degree from Ohio State University. He started teaching at Arcada in 1937 and moved to Carey in 1939. He taught and coached at Carey until 1942 when he accepted the position at Mt. Gilead. Blose has been at Mt. Gilead since 1942 with the exception of two years he served in the Navy during World War II. He became principal in 1946 and has served in that position up until the present time.

Three other resignations on the school faculty were accepted. Mrs. Farrar resigned as fourth grade teacher. Charles Bush resigned as industrial arts teacher, and Mrs. Esther Shultz Bush resigned as girl's physical education instructor. Mr. and Mrs. Bush are now located in San Bernadino, Calif.

The board hired Mrs. Ruth Repp of Mt. Gilead, a former teacher in the local school, as first grade teacher. Four vacancies on the local teaching staff still exist according to Farrar. Still needed are an elementary teacher, a girl's physical education teacher, an industrial arts teacher and a high school principal.

Ohio Power Co. Tax Write-off Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Office of Defense Mobilization has given the Ohio Power Co. a certificate of necessity which authorizes the company to write off in five years, in depreciation for federal tax purposes, 35 per cent of a planned outlay of $10,943,580 for electric power at Philo and Canton.

Illinois Woman Claims Estate Worth Million

COLUMBUS, OHIO (AP) — Mrs. Rose Sigler McGhiey, 45, of Springfield, Ill., asserting she is the mother of an illegitimate son and legitimate heiress to his million dollar estate, resumes testimony in probate court today.

Mrs. McGhiey, mother of four other children, claimed yesterday that Dennis R. Kelly was her son. Kelly was the adopted child of the late Edmund P. and Bess M. Kelly, wealthy Columbus residents.

Young Kelly inherited his wealth from his adopted parents but died at the age of 20 last Feb. 12 of pneumonia in an Army camp. He left no will. Relatives of the elder Kellys laid claim to a share in his estate.

Mrs. McGhiey claims the estate should go to her as Kelly's natural mother. She asked the court to declare her Kelly's heir.

She told the court she thought her son—Richard Allen Sigler—died in an Evanston, Ill., adoption home shortly after his birth, July 26, 1932.

But a Chicago genealogist, John Love, telephoned her last April to say Richard did not die and was adopted by the Kellys.

"I had to tell my present husband—win, lose or draw," she said. "I said, 'Well, here goes my happy home.' He knows about it now."

If Mrs. McGhiey proves her mothership in the Kelly case, she has at least one more legal obstacle to overcome.

A 1951 Ohio law gives the natural mother no legal rights to inheritenace if the child is adopted. Her attorney contends the law is invalid. Furthermore, Mrs. McGhiey insists she never consented to the adoption.

Twenty-seven others are seeking a share in the estate.

Five Drivers Arrested By State Patrolmen

Five arrests were made Thursday by state highway patrolmen from Marion.

Persons arrested, their charge and disposition of cases follow: Charles Fink, 31, of Greenville, Iowa, passing on a yellow line, fined $20 and costs by Mayor Nelson Lee of Crestline; Walter Birch, 63, of Columbus, passing on the yellow line, fined $15 and costs in Municipal Court) James Donley, 54, of Walbridge, O., speeding fined $20 and costs by Mayor M. F. Pinney at Delaware; Stanley Johanson, 43, of Columbus, speeding, cited to appear July 31 in Municipal Court; Robert Lahman, 27, of 533 Delaware Ave., Marion, speeding, cited to appear in Municipal Court on July 28.

Galion Coaches Given Three-Year Contracts

GALION — Three-year contracts were awarded Galion's two head coaches by the Galion Board of Education at its regular meeting this week. The men are Richard Kerin, head football and baseball coach, and Jack Shuck, head basketball and track coach.

Head coaching assignments were given the men last year under one-year contracts. The new contracts will be effective Sept. 1, running until 1955.

IN THE SERVICE

Pvt. Kenneth A. Linstedt, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linstedt of Waldo, arrived in Korea recently on a tour of duty with the 453rd Engineer Construction Battalion, part of the Korean Base Section. Pvt. Linstedt entered the Army last October. His wife, Janice Carol, lives in Columbus. The unit to which Pvt. Linstedt is assigned furnishes supplies, transportation, communications, and services to U. N. forces.

Pfc. Allen E. Richardson, son of Mason Richardson of Kenton, recently graduated from the Army's Engineer School in Murnau, Germany. He received instruction in the operation and maintenance of power boats implemented by the Corps of Engineers in rafting and bridging operations. Richardson, a member of the 103d Engineer Combat Battalion, entered the Army in March 1952 and arrived overseas in November of that year.

Berserk Cleveland Man Wounds Two

CLEVELAND (AP) — The gray-haired, blind woman raised her head as two detectives entered her living room in a search for her son. "Coid is here now," she said quietly.

A few minutes later, the son, Coid Mescudi, 30, lay dead with two police bullets in his body.

Before the detectives caught up with him yesterday, Mescudi, had wounded two relatives and caused his estranged wife to leap off a second - story porch at another house. Police said he went berserk after his wife rebuffed his reconciliation attempt.

Bookies Have Poor Year in Massachusetts

BOSTON (AP)—Massachusetts bookies had a poor year, indeed, based on the taxes they paid the federal government.

Internal Revenue Director Thomas Scanlon said last night the 226 dutifully-registered Massachusetts bookies paid a total of but $36,879 in excise taxes in the fiscal year ended last June 30.

The excise tax is 10 per cent of the gross take. That would put average gross receipts at $1,630 per bookie, as the average tax paid was $163.

Gambling is illegal in Massachusetts, except for horse and dog track parl-mutuel betting.

"we removed our water softener and subscribed to dependable SERVISOFT"

"I no longer have rust spots on my white wash"

"Salt water needed for regenerating our water softener caused such severe rust and corrosion on the softener and water pipes that I couldn't do a washing without finding rust spots on my nice white wash." Over and over we hear this remark from folks who formerly owned their softeners but now count on dependable SERVISOFT.
